CREDITS

The 2007 BGSU football media guide was produced by the BGSU Athletic Communications Office - TBA. Director: Mike Cihon and Dave Meyer, Assistant Directors: Kevin Shields and Stephanie Sabaduquia, Graduate Assistants - in cooperation with the BGSU football program. Additional assistance provided by Jeannine Ware, Lacy Peck, Erin Schorr, Seth Iames. Cover designs by Sherry Corwin. Primary inside photography by Craig Bell and Brad Phalin, BGSU Office of Marketing and Communications. Additional photography provided by Steve France, Larry Clapper and Ralph Parks. Printed by the Hubbard Company, Defiance, Ohio.

The press box at Perry Stadium is named in honor of long-time sports information director Don Cunningham. In October of 1992, the University honored Cunningham for 33 years of service to the athletic department in various capacities, the most lengthy as SID (1945-65). Cunningham also attended and graduated from BGSU ('43) and following his retirement in 1979 served as the curator of the BGSU Athletic Archives. Cunningham was inducted into the CoSIDA Hall of Fame in 1981. He passed away in June of 2000. In 2001, the Cunningham family established a scholarship in his honor to benefit students pursuing a career in sports information.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press credentials should be made to the BGSU Athletic Communications Office, addressed to the attention of Dave Meyer. Requests should be made at least one week in advance. Late requests will be honored if space is available, but parking cannot be guaranteed for requests less than one week in advance. Scouts and non-working media will be seated if space is available.

WEEKLY INFORMATION

Media members can access BGSU information via the internet at BGSUFalcons.com. Weekly game notes and statistics will be updated regularly. A PDF version of releases and statistics can be e-mailed to those outlets which would prefer to receive this information on a regular basis. Please notify Dave Meyer if you would like to be put on our primary media e-mail list.

MAC TELECONFERENCE

Coach Brandon will be available each Monday during the regular season on the weekly MAC Teleconference (10:48-10:56 a.m., Eastern). The number to call to join the teleconference is (785) 832-1508. A replay of the conference may be heard at (402) 530-0420.

WEEKLY LUNCHEON

Coach Gregg Brandon will hold a weekly media luncheon each Tuesday at noon in the Wilcox Room on the third floor of the SEBO Athletic Center. All members of the media are welcome to attend. Out-of-town media should contact Dave Meyer to schedule a phone interview with Coach Brandon.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All interviews with members of the team should be conducted at Coach Brandon's Tuesday media lunch. Players will be made available at 12:30 to those in attendance. Please allow at least 24 hours to set up interviews with players. Arrangements will be made for telephone and in-person interviews at a time that is mutually agreeable to the reporter/broadcaster and the athlete, should there be a schedule conflict.

PARKING

A special media parking lot is located adjacent to Perry Stadium, near the southwest corner of the stadium. Access to the media lot is by Alumni Drive which connects Mercer Road (near the Alumni Center) and Wooster Street (near the Information Booth). Admission to the media lot is restricted to people holding the correct credential acquired from the athletic communications office. All media members are asked to enter the stadium through the press gate (Gate 2) at the southwest corner of the stadium.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

At Home: Coach Brandon and BGSU players will be available for post-game interviews in a conference room located between the two locker rooms, following the normal cooling-off period. BGSU observes a closed locker room policy. The conference room is on the east side of the stadium (opposite the press box), and can be entered through the tunnels at either the north or south end. On the road: Coach Brandon and requested players will be made available in a designated media room or just outside the locker room following the normal cooling-off period.

PRESS GATE

The press gate (Gate 2) at Doyt L. Perry Stadium is at the southwest corner of the stadium, a short walk from the media parking lot.

MEDIA FIELD POLICY

A general media pass will allow you access to the field during pre-game warmups and during the final five minutes of the fourth quarter only. Field access will be limited to working photographers and television reporters.

GETTING TO DOYT L. PERRY STADIUM

Perry Stadium is located just off of I-75, the quickest and most convenient way to get to the stadium. Take exit 181 off of I-75 and go west on Wooster Street. The stadium will be visible from I-75. At the first traffic light on Wooster (Alumni Drive), turn right where an attendant will direct you to the media lot. I-75 is easily accessible from all directions.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photo passes for newspaper photographers, television videographers and, under special circumstances, for free-lance photographers, are available from the athletic communications office. Photo passes entitle the photographer access to the sideline, the post-game press conference room and the press box. Photographers must pick up an arm band in the press box prior to the game.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Members of the media will be provided with game programs, flip cards, current statistics and last-minute pregame notes prior to the start of the game. Statistical summaries will include play-by-play, quarter stats, halftime stats, complete team and individual stats and tackles. There are two telephones in the press box for use after the game.

RADIO & TELEVISION

Requests for permission to broadcast must be made in writing. Space will be made available for the official visiting radio station and student radio station on request. There is space in each booth for four persons. Phone lines can be ordered through Dave Meyer. Anyone wishing to televise a game from Doyt L. Perry Stadium should contact the athletic communications office at least ONE MONTH prior to the game, and preferably before the start of the season.

Todd Walker

Falcon Sports Radio Network

WPFX in Findlay (107.7 FM) is back for its fifth year as the radio flagship home for the BGSU football and men's basketball programs. Todd Walker, sports director at Clear Channel Lima, will begin his fifth year as the play-by-play voice on BGSU broadcasts.

Walker, a graduate of Ohio Northern, has been with Clear Channel Lima for 15 years and has done extensive high school football and basketball play-by-play during that time. He is a morning show co-host for WIMA, has served as a co-host of WIMA's weekly sports talk radio program and was the station's on-site host for its "Buckeye Tailgate Parties" prior to each Ohio State football game. Cal Bowers joins Walker in the booth for his second year as color analyst for Falcon football. Jason Aldrich, program director at WTTF in Tiffin, returns to the broadcasts for his fifth year, but in a different role. Jason comes in from the sidelines to serve as studio host and producer. He earned a citation from AP this past year for Best Sportscaster in a small market for 2007. The pre-game show begins one hour prior to kickoff. A one-hour weekly coaches show featuring Coach Gregg Brandon begins each Monday at 6 p.m. In addition, a daily visit with Coach Brandon may be heard on WPFX and WCWA. Please check your local listings for the times of the visits.

ACTIVE IN THE COMMUNITY

THE CORE VALUES

Values education and character development are at the heart of the BGSU experience. Our core values are evident in nearly every activity.

- Respect for one another
- Cooperation
- Intellectual and spiritual growth
- Creative imaginings
- Pride in a job well done

CAMPUS LIFE

The Bowen-Thompson Student Union redefines the personality of Bowling Green State University, bringing it new life and providing a focal point for both the campus and outreach communities. The new Student Union has quickly established itself as the heart and soul of the University, featuring designs and programming intended to take BGSU well into the 21st century. It is a contemporary gathering place and learning environment as well as a model for college campuses nationwide.

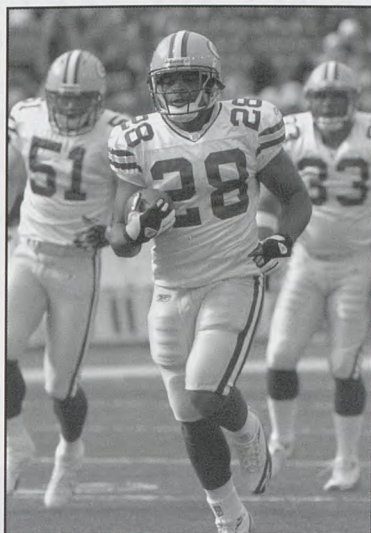

- Falcon's Nest Food Court
- Black Swamp Pub
- University Bookstore
- The Peregrine Shop
- 24 hr. computer lab
- Smith Multicultural Lounge

Intercollegiate sporting events are held on campus with BGSU students earning a reputation as some of the most spirited followers in the Mid-American Conference.

The Student Recreation Center – a blend of a student center, health club, and sports facility – offers modern and expansive recreational facilities for the Bowling Green students, faculty/staff and alumni members. The 185,000-square foot complex features two swimming pools, a whirlpool/spa, four weight room areas, and a large Sports Center which accommodates basketball, tennis, volleyball, and badminton.

Phil Villapiano

The BGSU football program has a long and storied tradition that has propelled several individuals to greater football success as players or coaches following their playing days. BGSU Hall of Famers such as Phil Villapiano and Don Nehlen are two of the most recognizable figures in Falcon history. Nehlen was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame this past year. Martin Bayless, who enjoyed a long NFL career, addressed the Falcons at a recent team function. Charlie Williams won a Super Bowl ring with the Dallas Cowboys.

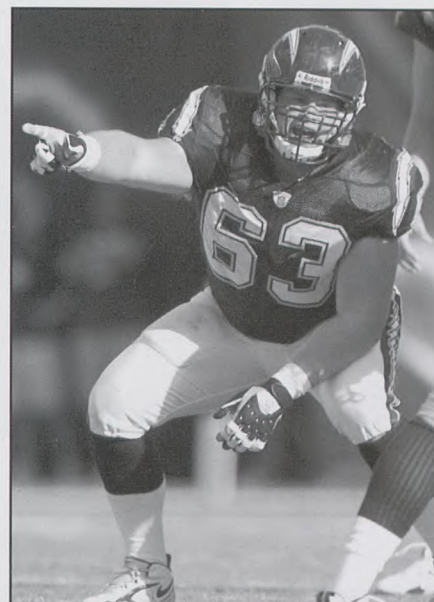

Since the 2001 season, BGSU has seen 15 players sign NFL contracts following their careers with the Falcons. When Omar Jacobs was selected in the fifth round by Pittsburgh in 2006, it marked the third straight year a Falcon had been drafted. Quarterback Josh Harris was chosen in the 6th round by Baltimore in 2004 and offensive lineman Scott Mruczkowski was picked by the San Diego Chargers in 2005. It marks the first time that BGSU has had players chosen in three straight years since 1976-80 when players were picked in five straight drafts.

FACILITIES

Great pride is taken in the facilities available to members of the BGSU football program.

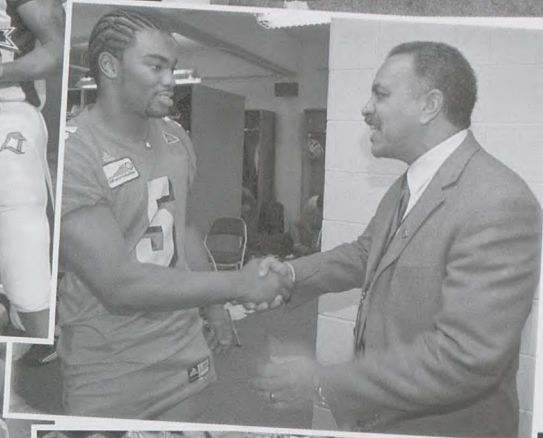

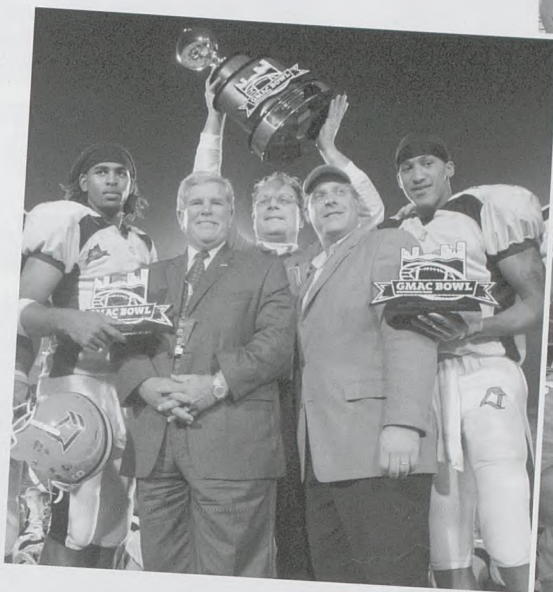

Aaron Hillmann, Director of Strength and Conditioning, is regarded as one of the best in his profession and will get the most out of each athlete and will oversee the brand new weight room inside the Sebo Athletic Center. BGSU is fortunate to have the MAC's premier indoor facility which allows the Falcons to practice on schedule regardless of the weather, allowing the student-athlete to follow his daily academic schedule and performing in an indoor setting designed specifically for football.

The Falcon locker room, which was also just upgraded prior to the 2007 season, is well maintained and gives the student-athlete easy access to Perry Stadium and the well-manicured practice fields which are adjacent to the stadium.

THE BOWL EXPERIENCE

The Falcons defeated Northwestern 28-24 in the 2003 Motor City Bowl and Memphis 52-35 in the 2004 GMAC Bowl. Starting last season MAC teams have the ability to compete for a berth in the International Bowl in Toronto.

2007 SEASON OUTLOOK

DEFENSE

The 2007 edition of the Bowling Green State University defense will offer one of the faster units the team has ever had on that side of the ball. In addition, the balance of the group is made up of sophomores and juniors with only two seniors listed at the top of the depth chart.

"We want to be aggressive and we want to win games with our defense," said BGSU Coach Gregg Brandon. "We had a lot of young guys get invaluable experience last season and I'm hopeful that they have grown."

Long-time assistant coach Mike Ward has been promoted to defensive coordinator and will look for his squad to have a nose for the football as the Falcons look to rank among the league leaders in turnover margin.

"Our returning players have developed a confidence in our defensive system," said Ward. "It is my job to get them to play fast and hard on every snap."

Junior defensive end Diyral Briggs and sophomore Jacob Hardwick give the Falcons an impressive duo on each side of the line. Briggs led all defensive linemen with 69 tackles and had seven sacks. He has 11.5 sacks during his two year career. Other players who will figure in the rotation include junior Adrian Baker, junior Joe Schaefer, redshirt freshman Darius Smith, sophomore Nick Lawrence, redshirt freshmen Angelo Magnone and redshirt freshmen Carlos Tipton.

Former tight end senior Sean O'Drobinak has moved to one defensive tackle and junior Nick Davis, will look to come back from an injury which forced him to miss the final nine games of the season, and start at nose guard. Diyral Briggs finished the 2006 season with seven sacks

Sophomore Michael

Ream, who had 24 tackles as a freshman is getting most of the reps with the starters in the spring in Davis' absence and should figure in the rotation. Sophomore D.J. Young and redshirt freshman Orlando Barrow also are expected to give the two positions depth.

Junior middle linebacker Erique Dozier is the top returner among the group as he finished second on the team with 98 tackles and had nine TFLs and three sacks. Sophomore Cody Basler who had 10 tackles also is maturing into a solid contributor Senior Loren Hargrove had 31 tackles and has the inside track at the starting spot on the weakside.

He is battling junior John Haneline who finished with 74 tackles, including 3.5 for a loss. On the strong side, sophomore P.J. Mahone,

Both Jacob Hardwick (#58) and Erique Dozier (#30) started all 12 games in 2006 who had 31 tackles as a safety last season, has emerged as the front runner in spring drills.

Four players who started a combined 33 games in 2006 return to the back end of the defense. Junior cornerback Antonio Smith begins his third season as a starter. He had 39 tackles in 10 starts despite battling injuries for most of the year. Junior cornerback Kenny Lewis also returns. He had 70 tackles and a team-high four interceptions. He also blocked three kicks. Sophomore Tarrell Lewis, who had 32 stops and sophomore Roger Williams, who saw time at running back last season, are pushing for added time on the field.

Sophomore Jerett Sanderson has the inside track at a starting spot at strong safety. Sanderson had 73 tackles, three interceptions, and a forced fumble and a fumble recovery for a TD. Sophomore Vincent Corner had five tackles and will battle Sanderson. Sophomore Jahmal Brown who had 59 tackles also returns for his second season as a starter. He holds the top spot at free safety and is competing with redshirt freshman Calvin Marshall.

"I really like the make-up of these kids," added Brandon. "They are tough and they fly toward the football. Those are two qualities we are going to need for us to be successful."

Vincent Corner had a 19.4 kick return average last season, tops on the team.

SPECIAL TEAMS

The Falcons will turn to two junior college transfers to oversee their kicking game. Junior Nick Iovinelli was an All-Region performer at Harper College where he averaged 36.6 yards per punt. Junior Sinisa Vrvillo, a transfer from Trinity Valley Community College, was an All-American at the JC ranks and hit on 53 of 55 PATs and 23 career field goals.

"We are confident that our kicking game will improve," said Brandon. "I like what I have seen from these two guys and I look for them to have an immediate impact."

Sophomore Craig Rutherford along with senior Kyle Cutler are in a close battle for the long snapper job. Junior Corey Partridge will be back to return punts after averaging 8.6 yards a season ago. Junior Kenny Lewis and sophomore Antonio Smith will return kicks for the Falcons.

OFFENSE

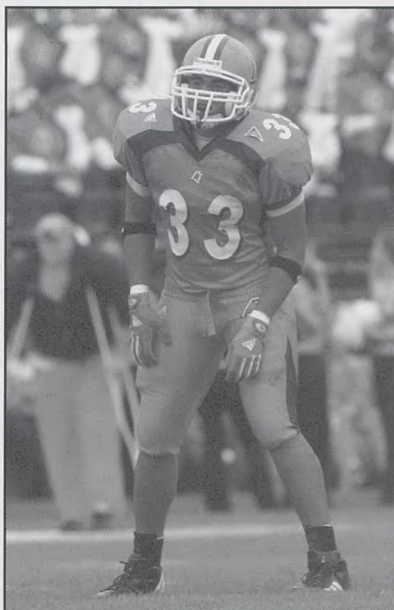

The Falcons will look to provide a more balanced attack on offense in 2007. Ranked among the MAC leaders in passing from 2001 to 2005, BGSU led the MAC in rushing last season for the first time since 1964, and hopes to return to form with the ability of a quick-striking, vertical attack to compliment the running game.

"Last year we accomplished our goals with the running game," said Brandon. "For us to be among the best teams in the conference, we have to be able to do both well and we have to be patient in the development of our young talent."

Brandon tabbed former quarterbacks coach Mick McCall to coordinate the offense in 2007 and the veteran coach hopes to help the Falcons return as one of the top scoring teams in the country and in the MAC.

"We have a great group of kids who are coming back to work with," said McCall. "Our offensive line is as good as any in the MAC and we have a number of young skill players who have a chance to really make their mark in this league."

The heart and soul of the offense is its line. Senior center Kory Lichtensteiger is a three-time All-MAC performer who anchors a group which allowed the third fewest sacks in the league and topped the conference in rushing at 176.7 yards per game. Senior left tackle Drew Nystrom and senior right tackle Kevin Huelsman also are returning starters who were part of a much heralded 2003 recruiting class. Senior veterans Andrew Stanford, Brandon Mack and Patrick Watson are versatile and experienced performers who can play multiple positions.

Sophomore left guard Shane Steffy also gained valuable experience and junior Brandon Curtis has the early edge for a starting spot at right guard. Junior Aaron Kent, sophomore Brady Minturn, junior Jeff Fink, and redshirt freshman Tyler Donahue also are battling.

Junior quarterback Anthony Turner was the starter for the majority of 2006. He completed 144 of 252 passes for 1,596 yards and 11 TD. He also rushed for 480 yards and five scores. Sophomore Tyler Sheehan has been impressive during the spring after being rushed into duty as a true freshman due to injuries. In four games, Sheehan completed 23 of 43 passes for 192 yards. Redshirt freshman Anthony Gaud, an outstanding athlete, is looking for his first playing time and should push Turner and Sheehan for playing time.

"I think Tyler Sheehan is stepping up at quarterback," said Brandon. "I am going to keep evaluating. I have three players that are all competing. With Sheehan, Gaud and Turner I think I have three guys that are all capable."

Junior Corey Partridge is one of the top receivers in the MAC. He caught 55 passes for 658 yards in 10 games and had three TD catches. Sophomore Freddie Barnes has been moved full-time to receiver and may be the best athlete on offense. He caught 20 passes for 203 yards and a score. He also rushed for 442 yards and a team-high nine rushing scores.

Junior Marques Parks has caught 14 career passes for 144 yards. Sophomore Tyrone Pronty played in the final five games of the season and caught five passes. Sophomore Zach Charles looks to return healthy after starting the first five games. He caught 14 passes for 50 yards. Sophomores Calvin Wiley, Chris Wright, and Derek Brighton look to add speed to the unit.

Sophomore Jimmy Scheidler has earned the starting job at tight end and will be backed up by freshman Nick Rieke. Senior Pete Winovich returns as the starter at fullback. He rushed for 78 yards on 12 carries and caught one pass for a TD. Scheidler also could see time at fullback.

Freshman All-American Chris Bullock (left) rushed for a team-high 769 yards last season. He also had four TD rushes. Senior Dan Macon is back after rushing for 387 yards and a score. The duo will compete with Junior College All-American Eric Ransom who recorded 2,356 yards on 413 rushes during his two-year career at Trinity Valley CC. He was the top rusher in the nation at the JC ranks as a freshman.

Other JC transfers Keston Cheatham (Fresno City), and Jermiah Kelley (Joaquin Delta) will also provide depth for the Falcon offense

Corey Partridge led the team in receptions (55) yards (658) and receiving touchdowns (3) in 2006.

FIELDTURF TO BE INSTALLED AT DOYT L. PERRY STADIUM

Bowling Green, Ohio - Bowling Green State University Assistant Vice President/Director of Athletics Greg Christopher has announced the department will replace the 41-year old natural grass playing field at Doyt L. Perry Stadium with the synthetic grass surface, FieldTurf in time for the 2007 season. Cost of the project is expected to be $966,000.

"We have been in discussions for several months about the future of our playing surface at Perry Stadium," said Christopher. "FieldTurf is a product that our players and coaches have a great deal of confidence in. The new surface also benefits BGSU on two fronts: it allows us greater flexibility with the stadium, meaning many of our teams can practice on the surface and Perry Stadium can host more events which helps the department generate new revenues. Secondly, we expect to see cost savings over time related to maintenance of the old surface."

BGSU is among the many Universities and professional organizations that have chosen FieldTurf as its playing surface over the past eight years. BGSU will be the 29th NCAA Division IA school and sixth in the MAC to have FieldTurf installed in their home football stadium.

"We have long prided ourselves regarding the grass surface at Perry Stadium and it has served us well over the last 41 years," said Christopher. "The surface itself, which has never been replaced, is in outstanding shape and will be used at other facilities on campus. Our concern is with the condition of the existing drainage system, which also was installed in 1966, and we believe this change best serves the interests of our program."

"I would like to thank Jim Elsasser (Assistant Athletic Director for Internal Operations) and others for their work in leading to this decision," added Christopher. "Jim led a cross-campus team on a process that looked at all of our options related to fixing the Doyt's playing surface. As we examined the various choices, FieldTurf stood out as the best solution."

WRIGHT CHALLENGE KICKS OFF DEFENDING OUR TURF CAMPAIGN

Van '77 and Tracey '77 Wright of Wapakoneta have established the Wright Challenge and provided a generous donation of $150,000 as the lead gift for the Defending Our Turf campaign. The campaign hopes to raise $1.5 million and will cover the the costs of the new FieldTurf surface that will be installed in time for the 2007 football season at Doyt Perry Stadium.

"We are thrilled to be a part of the Defending Our Turf Campaign," said Van and Tracey. "Doyt Perry Stadium holds so many great memories for us and our family's three generations of Falcon fans. With our fourth generation Falcon fan on the way, we are proud to be a part of this next step to advance the athletic program for future generations. We hope you will join us as we Defend Our Turf. Forward Falcons!"

BGSU is among the many Universities and professional organizations that have chosen FieldTurf as its playing surface over the past eight years. BGSU will be the 29th NCAA Division IA school and sixth in the MAC to have FieldTurf installed in their home football stadium.

NEW HOME FOR FALCON FOOTBALL

In May, the BGSU football program moved its operations into the brand new Sebo Athletic Center. The privately funded center, which will be located at the north end zone of the Doyt L. Perry Stadium, will become the stadium's new front entrance. At approximately 33,500 square feet, the new two-story building features an expanded and state-of-the-art sports medicine and rehabilitation facility and a strength and conditioning area for all the University student athletes. There also are football coaches' offices, a video equipment and viewing room, team meeting rooms and conference rooms to enhance facilities that are currently available. A heritage room and an outdoor pavilion overlooking the playing field are also planned.

J. Robert "Bob" Sebo of Salem, Ohio, provided the lead gift of more than $3.5 million to build the Sebo Athletic Center in the North end zone of Perry Stadium.

Sebo, who graduated from BGSU in 1958 with a degree in business administration, is a member of the BGSU Board of Trustees. He was involved in many successful business ventures including co-founding Paychex Inc., a top national provider of payroll, human resource, and benefits outsourcing solutions for businesses in the U.S. He spent 20 years with the company, retiring as senior vice president and partner in 1994.

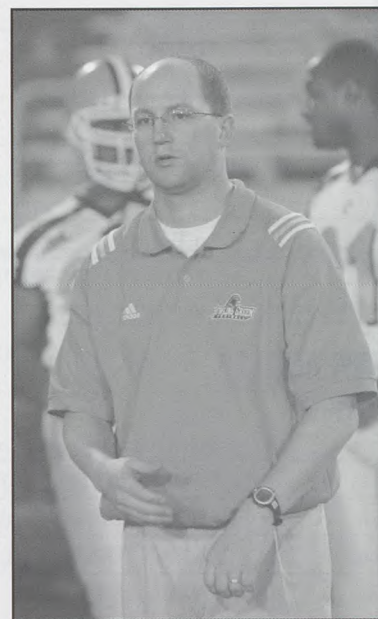

ROTHENBUHLER NAMED ASSISTANT HEAD COACH

Bowling Green State University football coach Gregg Brandon has announced that fifth-year assistant coach Troy Rothenbuhler has been promoted to assistant head coach. Rothenbuhler, a native of Oregon and a graduate of Clay High School, is the tight ends coach, recruiting coordinator and inside receiver coach for the Falcons.

"Troy has provided our staff with outstanding leadership during his tenure and has been an invaluable asset to our program," said Brandon. "He is a tireless worker whose organizational skills are unmatched."

Rothenbuhler, a graduate of Ohio State, came to BGSU after serving as a graduate assistant with the Buckeyes and after working as an assistant coach at Arkansas State and Heidelberg. At BGSU, Rothenbuhler coached tight ends in 2003, 2005 and 2006. In 2004, he coached All-MAC defensive ends Mitchell Crossley and Devon Parks. In 2003, tight ends Craig Jarrett became the first Falcon football player in 10 years to earn Academic All-American honors.

"I'm thrilled about the opportunity and excited about the upcoming season," said Rothenbuhler. "It means a lot to me that Coach Brandon has thought enough of my contributions that he has rewarded me in this way."

FALCONS RETURN EIGHT DEFENSIVE STARTERS

Gone are Terrel White (101 tackles), Devon Parks (55 tackles) and Brad Williams (45 tackles), but returning to lead the 2007 Falcon defensive will be eight starters from last season. Overall BGSU returns 765 of 972 tackles (79%), 10 of 12 (83%) interceptions, all eight forced fumbles, and 44 of 78 (56%) tackles for loss. Leading the 2007 defense will be Erique Dozier (98 tackles), John Haneline (74 tackles), Jerett Sanderson (73 tackles, three interceptions), Kenny Lewis (70 tackles, four interceptions) and Diyral Briggs (69 tackles, seven sacks).

BGSU STILL HAS A VERY YOUNG SQUAD

In 2006 the Falcons played the third most true freshman in the country with 15. Looking at the depth chart to begin the 2007 season, of the 66 players listed 40 are either first or second year players for the Orange and Brown. On the offensive side 16-of-31 will be sophomores or younger, while 22-of-33 players on the defensive side of the ball are underclassman. Also of note, both the kicker and punter are also entering their first year with the Falcons.

FALCONS ANNOUNCE SEVEN ADDITIONS TO THE COACHING

STAFF

BGSU head coach Gregg Brandon has announced that Stephen Bird (outside receivers/special teams), Matt Campbell (offensive line), Adam Gonzaga (secondary), Deion Melvin (linebackers), Doug Phillips (defensive line), Jason Morton (offensive assistant) and Brad Wilson (defensive assistant) have joined the Falcon coaching staff for the 2007 season.

Bird joins the Falcons after spending the last two seasons at his alma mater Eastern Kentucky. A former All-American for the Colonels, he coached wide receivers in 2006 and tight ends in 2005. In 2005, he saw tight end Patrick Bugg earn All-American honors after leading the OVC in TD.

Campbell returns to BGSU after a two year stint at Mount Union. Campbell was the offensive grad assistant at Bowling Green in 2003 and 2004.

Gonzaga comes to BGSU after spending the last five seasons at Northwood (Michigan) University where he was the defensive coordinator. Gonzaga saw four of his defensive players earn All-American honors during his tenure as the Timberwolves were one of just two teams in the country to advance to the NCAA Division II playoffs each of the last three years.

Melvin spent the past season coaching the running backs at Georgia Southern. Prior to that he spent seven seasons as the assistant head coach/defensive coordinator at Missouri State.

Doug Phillips joins the Falcon staff after spending last season as the defensive quality control coach at Ohio State. He was part of a staff which won the Big Ten championship and played in the BCS title game. Last year, the Buckeyes were fifth in the country in scoring defense. On the field, he assisted with the Buckeye linebackers which included All-American and Bronko Nagurski Trophy winner James Laurinaitis.

Jason Morton, a former defensive back for BGSU will be the offensive grad assistant, while Brad Wilson will assume the duties of the defensive graduate assistant.

HEAD COACH
FIFTH SEASON
SEVENTH SEASON AT BGSU
N. COLORADO, 1978

HOMETOWN:

Colorado Springs, Colo.

BIRTHDATE:

Feb. 29, 1956

EDUCATION:

N. Colorado, 1978 (BA)

WIFE: Robyn

CHILDREN: Nicholas (22), Timothy (15)

Gregg Brandon became the 16th head coach in the history of the Falcon football program on Dec. 19, 2002, and guided the Falcons to back-to-back bowl wins for just the second time in school history in 2003 and 2004 after the Falcons defeated Northwestern, 28-24, at the Motor City Bowl and Memphis, 52-35 in the GMAC Bowl. In his tenure at BGSU, he has a 30-19 overall record and a 21-11 mark against conference opposition. In addition, BGSU has made 16 national TV appearances during his tenure.

Last year, BGSU finished first in the MAC in rushing averaging 176.6 yards per game on the ground.

In 2005, BGSU shared the MAC East title and went unbeaten on the road in league play (4-0), including a 42-14 nationally televised win over arch-rival Miami. The Falcons were the top program in the MAC in punt returns (12.97) and finished second in passing (388.8), scoring (35.8) and net punting (35.1) and third in total offense (447.8), pass efficiency (142.4) and turnover margin (.73). The Falcons were ranked 16th in the country in punt returns, 17th in passing, 18th in scoring, 20th in turnover margin, and 21st in pass efficiency.

In 2004, he guided the Falcons to a national ranking in each major poll for the second straight year as they finished 9-3. The Falcons also boasted the most potent offense in MAC history finishing second in the country at 506.3 yards per game and fourth nationally in scoring offense at 44.3 points per game. Both established new league records. In addition, the Falcons finished third in the country in passing (338.3) and turnover margin (+1.25) and fourth in pass efficiency (165.5). In addition, he saw sophomore quarterback Omar Jacobs earn All-American honors and blossom into the national leader in TD passes with 41 and set an NCAA record for touchdown to interception ratio with just four picks all season. For his efforts he was named MAC Offensive Player of the Year.

In 2003, he guided BGSU to a #23 national ranking in the final AP and Coaches Poll (23rd) and a #24 position in the final BCS standings. Last year, he had the top record of any first-time, first-year head coach that season with an 11-3 mark after guiding the Falcons to a MAC West title (7-1) and a win over Northwestern in the Motor City Bowl. In addition, he saw BGSU ranked for a school record eight weeks and make five national television appearances. Also, BGSU finished third in the country in total offense (496.7), ninth in passing offense (300.4), 14th in passing efficiency (147.29), and 20th in scoring (33.6). Defensively, the Falcons were the third highest rated team in the MAC. Senior quarterback Josh Harris and senior cornerback Janssen Patton also earned All-American honors for their stellar individual performances.

Brandon was hired after more than 22 years of coaching experience at the Division I level, including two years at BGSU where he has served as assistant head coach and directed the Falcons' record-setting offensive attack. In 2002, the Falcons finished third in the nation in scoring (40.8), eighth in total offense (448.9) and 15th in rushing (219.1). In addition, the Falcons toppled 17 school records and seven MAC records and Josh Harris set a then-league mark with 41 TDs responsible for. Brandon saw wide receiver Robert Redd earn first-team All-MAC honors for two straight seasons. In addition, BGSU had the top red zone efficiency in the nation (96.8) converting on 61 of 63 opportunities inside the opponents' 20-yard line.

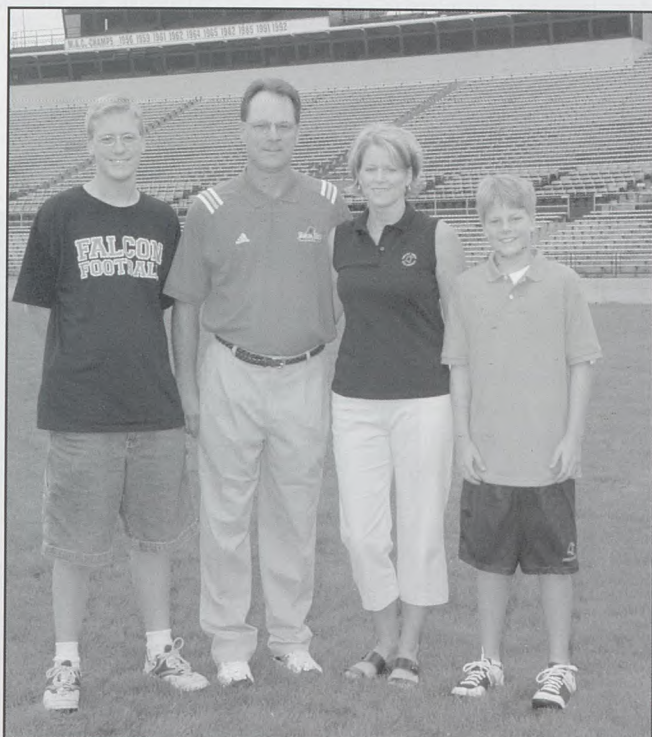

In his first season at BGSU, the Falcon offense showed tremendous improvement, accumulating 124.46 more yards per game and 14.48 more points per game than the 2000 squad. Among MAC schools, the Falcons improved from 13th to fourth in total offense and from 11th to third in scoring offense under his leadership. BGSU set five school records on offense that year. Brandon joined the Falcons after spending two seasons at Colorado under Gary Barnett, where he coached the receivers and kickoff return units both years and was the team's passing-game coordinator in 2000 and recruiting coordinator in 1999. Brandon, 50, played football for Barnett at Air Academy High School in Colorado Springs, and stayed in close touch with him throughout the years. When Barnett was hired as head coach at Northwestern in 1992, Brandon joined the Wildcat staff as receivers coach. He was also Northwestern's recruiting coordinator for his last two seasons there (1997-98). In his seven seasons at Northwestern, Brandon assembled an extremely talented group of receivers, including D'Wayne Bates, the second all-time leading receiver in Big Ten history. Bates was a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award and an All-America candidate.

Brandon played collegiately as both a defensive back and wide receiver at Mesa State (1974) and Northern Colorado (1975-77). He graduated from UNC in 1978 with a bachelors degree in education, and began his coaching career that fall as head football coach at Ellicott (Colo.) High School. He spent three seasons there (1978-80) before joining the college ranks at Weber State (under former Washington State coach Mike Price), where he would coach the next six seasons (1981-86). He coached the tight ends and special teams in his first four seasons, the linebackers in his fifth year and the receivers and tight ends during his final year in Ogden. He was then named receivers coach at Wyoming, where he would work the next four years (1987-90). During his tenure with head coach Paul Roach, the Cowboys posted a 35-15 record, including a 16-0 run in Western Athletic Conference play in 1987 and 1988, and played in three bowls ('87 and '88 Holiday and '90 Copper). In 1991, he returned to Utah where he coached the linebackers for one season (1991) at Utah State. Brandon, born Feb. 29, 1956, in Tucson, Ariz., and his wife, Robyn, are the parents of two sons, Nicholas (23), a senior at Purdue, and Timothy (15).

MICK MCCALL
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
FIFTH SEASON
S. COLORADO, 1979

Mick McCall was promoted to offensive coordinator on January 19, 2007 after spending four seasons as the quarterbacks coach for the Falcons. He came to BGSU after spending two years as an assistant at Wyoming. McCall has seen two of his pupils, Josh Harris in 2003 and Omar Jacobs in 2004 earn All-American honors. Harris was a second team All-MAC choice in 2003 while Jacobs earned first team honors in 2004 and second team recognition in 2005. Jacobs, who declared early for the NFL draft, set a BGSU career record with 71 TD tosses and a 64.5% completion percentage. He also finished third in career total offense with 7,389 total yards. In 2005, Jacobs led the MAC in total offense averaging 294.7 yards per game and was second in TD passes with 26. He also was 11th in the nation in pass efficiency (150.9) and 13th in total offense at 294.7 yards per game. In 2004, Jacobs had the best year ever for a Falcon signal caller. He set an NCAA record by throwing a NCAA-best and MAC record 41 TD passes with just four interceptions, the best TD/interception ratio in the history of college football. Jacobs also was named MAC Offensive Player of the year and completed 309 of 462 passes for 4,002 yards. He also led the nation in points responsible for at 22.5 per game and was second in the nation in passing (333.5 yards per game) and total offense (358.5). He also finished fourth nationally in passing efficiency at 165.47.

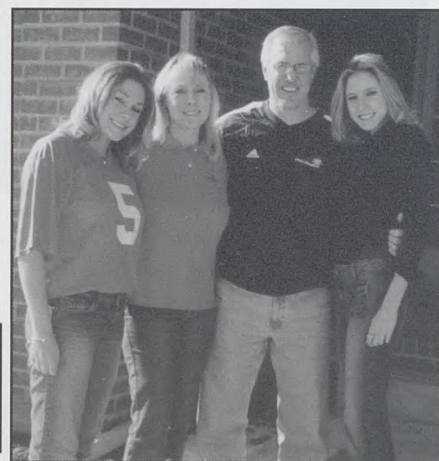

In 2003, Harris completed 325-of-494 passes (65.8%) for a then school-record 3,813 yards and 27 touchdowns. He also had 830 yards rushing, the most by a MAC QB in 2003 and ranked third in the country and first in the MAC in total offense (331.1). He was selected by the Baltimore Ravens in the sixth round of the 2004 NFL Draft.

At Wyoming, he coached the quarterbacks in 2002 and the running backs in 2001. He came to Wyoming from J.K. Mullen High School in Denver, Colo., where he was among the most successful high school football coaches in the state of Colorado from 1994 to 2000. McCall also has a wealth of experience at the collegiate level, having served as an assistant coach at Oregon State from 1988-90, at Idaho State from 1983-87 and at the University of Southern Colorado from 1979-82. During McCall's seven-year tenure as head coach at Mullen High School, he led the football program to a 68-17 (.800) record and a state championship in 1998 earning Denver Post Coach of the Year honors that season. McCall also was the head coach at Douglas County High School in Castle Rock, Colo., for three seasons from 1991-93. He holds an overall high school head-coaching record of 80-36 (.690).

Among the more notable players McCall coached during his career was former Idaho State running back Merrill Hoge. Hoge went on to star for the Pittsburgh Steelers of the NFL from 1987-93 and is currently an NFL analyst for ESPN. Prior to entering a career in coaching, McCall was a running back at the University of Southern Colorado in Pueblo, Colo., from 1975-78 where he was a two-time All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference performer and lettered in basketball. He was invited to and participated in the training camp of the NFL's Detroit Lions following his college playing career. McCall was born April 6, 1957. He and his wife, JoAnn, have two daughters in college, Ashley (Wyoming) and Brittany (Kansas).

MIKE WARD
16TH SEASON
GEORGETOWN, 1984

Mike Ward is in his first season as defensive coordinator. He has spent the last seven seasons working the Falcon defensive linemen and previously was the program's strength coach from 1992-99. He replaces John Lovett who spent two seasons at BGSU and will assume a new position at North Carolina. Last year, BGSU finished fourth in the MAC in overall defense allowing 318.5 yards per game and was third in sacks averaging 2.33 per game. Since the 2000 season, Ward has coached one All-American, one Academic All-American and five All-MAC performers.

Ward, a native of Mansfield, Ohio, was an assistant football coach at the University of Findlay for six years prior to coming to BGSU. He served as the defensive line coach and the strength and conditioning coordinator for the Oilers before leaving in 1992. Prior to that, he was an assistant football coach and strength coach at his alma mater, Georgetown College, for two years. Ward earned a degree in health and physical education from Georgetown College in 1984. He also earned a graduate degree in secondary education from Georgetown.

The Lexington High School graduate received second-team NAIA Division I All-America football honors as an offensive guard in 1983. Ward is certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association as a Strength and Conditioning Specialist. He was twice named as the NSCA Professional of the Year by his colleagues in the Mid-American Conference. Ward and his wife, Jody, have two children, Michaela, 10, and Addison, 5.

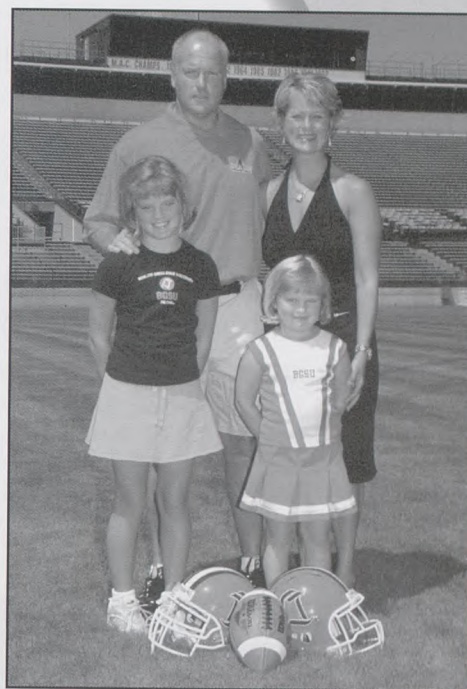

In 2006, he saw senior defensive end Devon Parks earn first team-All-MAC honors after recording 13.5 TFL's and nine sacks. In addition, senior tackle Brad Williams had four sacks and sophomore defensive end also ranked among MAC leaders with seven sacks. In 2005, as the coach of the defensive tackles, he saw Mike Thaler lead the team with 5.5 sacks and earn Academic All-American honors, while fellow senior Monte Cooley also had five TFLs.

In 2004, his front line of defense was integral in the Falcon squad finishing third in the MAC in scoring defense, fifth in rushing defense, and sixth in overall defense. Ward's interior unit also accounted for 16 of BGSU's 23 sacks and 36 tackles-for-a-loss. In 2003, he oversaw the development of some of the best young talent on the defensive interior in the MAC. In addition, his group helped the Falcons finish second the league against the rush and garner 32 sacks. The Falcons' young defensive line held its own in 2002, ranking third in the MAC against the rush and fourth overall in total defense. In addition, the Falcons led the league in turnover margin for the second straight year.

In 2002, he coached Alex Glantzis who earned second-team All-MAC honors. In 2001, he saw nose tackle Brandon Hicks earn All-American honors and first-team All-MAC accolades as the Falcons finished seventh in the nation against the rush. In addition, three players-Hicks, Chris Glantzis and Ryan Wingrove ranked among the top 10 players in the MAC in sacks. In his first season in 2000, he saw Hicks earn first-team All-MAC honors after he finished among the MAC leaders in sacks.

TROY ROTHENBUHLER

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH
RECRUITING/INSIDE RECEIVERS
FIFTH SEASON
OHIO STATE, 1995

Troy Rothenbuhler is in his fifth season at BGSU, beginning his first as the assistant head coach. He is also in charge of recruiting and the inside receiver position.

The last two years, he tutored Sean O'Drobinak who finished third on the team in TD receptions with four in 2005.

In 2004, he saw Mitchell Crossley earn second-team All-MAC honors and saw Devon Parks emerge as one of the top young defensive linemen in the MAC. His group also helped the Falcons lead the league in turnovers forced with 25 and finish third in the nation in turnover margin.

In 2003, he saw tight end Craig Jarrett become the first Falcon in more than a decade to earn Academic All-American honors.

As recruiting coordinator, BGSU has forged a strong footprint in recruiting some of the top players in the state of Ohio and throughout the Midwest and southeastern United States. He came to Bowling Green in 2003 after spending 2002 as offensive coordinator at Heidelberg College. He had previously spent five years as an assistant coach at Arkansas State. During his tenure with the Indians, he coached both tight ends and receivers.

A 1995 graduate of Ohio State, Rothenbuhler was a graduate assistant for the Buckeyes in 1995 and 1996 where he worked with the quarterbacks and tight ends. From 1992-94, he was a student assistant who assisted with the team's wide receivers. During his time with the Buckeyes, he worked with teams that appeared in one Rose Bowl, three Citrus Bowls and one Holiday Bowl. He is a 1989 graduate of Oregon Clay High School. Born April 10, 1971, in Oregon, Ohio, he and his wife, Amy, a Campbell native, are the parents of one daughter, Madison (8) and a son, Jake (2).

STEPHEN BIRD

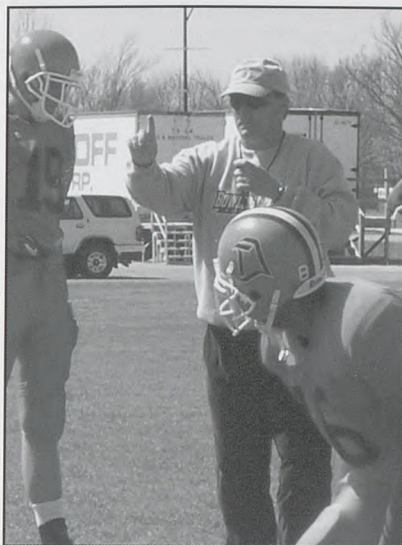

OUTSIDE RECEIVERS/
SPECIAL TEAMS
FIRST SEASON
EASTERN
KENTUCKY, 1984

Stephen Bird joins the Falcons after spending the last two seasons at his alma mater Eastern Kentucky. A former All-American for the Colonels, he coached wide receivers in 2006 and tight ends in 2005. In 2005, he saw tight end Patrick Bugg earn All-American honors after leading the OVC in TDs.

From 2001 to 2004, he served as passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach at West Virginia University. He coordinated the passing game for an offense that produced 20,000 yards of offense and 133 TDs from 2002 to 2004. In 2003, he saw one of his players earn Big East Rookie of the Year and during his tenure, his top pupil also averaged 900 yards and scored 22 times in his career. In addition, the team went to three straight bowl games (2002 Continental Tire Bowl and 2004 and 2005 Gator Bowl).

A native of Corbin, Ky., Bird helped EKU win national championships as a player in 1979 and 1982. His collegiate career culminated in 1982, when he was named a Kodak All-American, as well as the Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year and Male Athlete of the Year. After graduating from Eastern in 1983, Bird was selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the NFL Draft. He enjoyed a four-year stint in the NFL, playing with the Cardinals and San Diego Chargers. Bird returned to ECU in 1987 as a wide receivers coach. He went on to work as a graduate assistant coach at Kentucky (1990-91) and Tennessee (1992), before joining Pittsburgh as a wide receivers coach (1993-95). His road to West Virginia included stops at Kent State, Tulane and Middle Tennessee State. At three of his coaching stops, Bird worked with the school's all-time leading receiver - Pitt, Middle Tennessee and Kent State. Bird's father, Jerry, starred for the Kentucky Wildcats and led UK basketball to a 25-0 record in 1954. Bird received both his bachelor's and master's degrees from ECU. He and his wife, Lisa, have two children, Ryan and Madison.

MATT CAMPBELL

OFFENSIVE LINE
FIRST SEASON
MOUNT UNION, 2003

Matt Campbell, who has spent the last two years as the offensive line coach at Division III power Mount Union, has assumed a similar position for the Falcons. Campbell is no stranger to BGSU having served as the offensive graduate assistant for the Falcons during their bowl championship years of 2003 and 2004.

During his stay at BGSU, he worked primarily with the tight ends. He was a member of a staff for two nationally ranked teams which won the 2003 MAC West and Motor City Bowl titles and 2004 GMAC Bowl crown. He was studying for a master's degree in education administration. Campbell, a 2002 graduate of Mount Union, was a member of five national championship teams as a coach and player for the Purple Raiders. The last two years, he coached the offensive line as the team won back-to-back national titles. He was a key member of three MUC teams which won a national title (2000, 2001 and 2002). He was a two-time first-team All-American and was voted as the Ohio Athletic Conference's Best Defensive Lineman in 2001 and 2002.

He also was a standout in the classroom earning CoSIDA Academic All-American honors while he pursued his degree in history. During his career, he had 207 tackles, 49 for a loss and 22 sacks. Campbell and his wife, Erica, reside in BG.

ADAM GONZAGA

SECONDARY
FIRST SEASON
AZUSA PACIFIC, 1992

Adam Gonzaga is in his first year as defensive backs coach for the Falcons. Gonzaga comes to BGSU after spending the last five seasons at Northwood (Michigan) University where he was the defensive coordinator. Gonzaga saw four of his defensive players earn All-American honors during his tenure as the Timberwolves were one of just two teams in the country to advance to the NCAA Division II playoffs each of the last three years.

This past year, his defense forced 29 turnovers and allowed 279 yards per game and saw eight opponents score 20 points or less. They were sixth in the country in turnover margin. The 2005 Northwood defense remained strong under Gonzaga. Northwood ranked 23rd nationally in scoring defense (18.3 ppg) while placing three players on the All-GLIAC first-team (Kyle Clement, Charleston Hughes, Jon Horn). NU also led the conference with 21 interceptions and a total of 30 forced turnovers on defense. The Timberwolves held their opponents under 20 points seven times in 12 games. In 2004, Northwood scored a total of six defensive touchdowns and won a GLIAC championship. In 2003, Northwood finished finished No. 1 against the pass in the conference, allowing teams to gain just 140.5 yards per game through the air.

Gonzaga came to Northwood from the United States Naval Academy, where he coached the linebackers during the 2001 season. He also had a successful two-year stint at Greenville College in Greenville, Illinois from 1999-2000. While at Greenville, Gonzaga served as the defensive coordinator and the squad posted back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in nine years. He coached two All-Americans and the 1999 squad was co-SLIAC conference champions. In 1998, Gonzaga coached the defensive ends and outside linebackers at the University of Connecticut. UConn went 10-3 and advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA Semifinals during his one season on the staff.

DEION MELVIN

LINEBACKERS
FIRST SEASON
WESTERN ILLINOIS, 1994

Deion Melvin is in his first season as the linebackers coach at Bowling Green. Melvin comes to BGSU after spending the past season as the running backs coach at Georgia Southern University.

"This is really great to get a coach of his quality and experience this close to the season," said BGSU head coach Gregg Brandon. "He has a good blend of youth and experience and has worked with some great head coaches."

While at GSU he coached a pair of running backs that recorded over 800 yards apiece and ran for a combined 15 touchdowns in his first season as the running backs coach. The Eagles finished 22nd in the country in rushing.

Prior to his time at GSU he spent seven seasons with Missouri State where he held the title of assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. He also coached the linebackers in all seven of those seasons. He was also the recruiting coordinator starting in 1999.

"This is a great opportunity to have a chance to work with such an outstanding staff," said Melvin. "They are so young and passionate about the game of football. I feel very blessed for this opportunity to be a Falcon."

He began his coaching career at Western Illinois (1993-98) where he coached the linebacker position and was the recruiting coordinator and assistant strength coach.

JOHN HUNTER

RUNNING BACKS
SECOND SEASON
BOWLING GREEN, 1988

John Hunter, a Bowling Green alma mater, is entering his second year on the Falcon coaching staff. Last year, he saw the Falcons lead the MAC averaging 176.6 yards per game and oversaw the development of Freshman All-American Chris Bullock.

From 2000 to 2006, Hunter served as the head football and boy's track and field coach at Pershing. On the gridiron, his teams were 40-28 and made four state playoff appearances in the last six years after the school had made just one state playoff appearances in its history prior to his arrival. He led Pershing to two district titles, two regional championship games and one Detroit P.S.L. playoff nod.

Hunter, who graduated from the institution in 1988, was a four-year starter at linebacker and twice was named first-team All-MAC (1986 and 1987). For his career, he had 336 tackles, including 44 for a loss and was a member of a 1985 MAC Championship team. Following his senior year, he signed a free agent contract with the San Francisco 49ers. Prior to his stint at Pershing High School, Hunter was an assistant coach at St. Martin DePorres in 1989 and from 1994-99. He was the defensive backs coach for a team which won the state championship in 1989 and was defensive coordinator from 1994-99, also winning state titles in 1995 and 1996. As a player, he also played on state title teams at DePorres in 1981 and 1982.

A native of Detroit, he and his wife, Amara, have a son, John (8) and a daughter, Justiss (5).

DOUG PHILLIPS

DEFENSIVE LINE
FIRST SEASON
TOLEDO, 1991

Doug Phillips joins the Falcon staff after spending last season as the defensive quality control coach at Ohio State. He was part of a staff which won the Big Ten championship and played in the BCS title game. Last year, the Buckeyes were fifth in the country in scoring defense. On the field, he assisted with the Buckeye linebackers which included All-American and Bronko Nagurski Trophy winner James Laurinaitis.

He enters his 20th year in the coaching profession. He worked for 15 years at the high school level, including nine as a head coach. In addition, he spent two years at Youngstown State with Jim Tressel, while earning his masters degree. He coached tight ends, defensive backs and running backs/kickers during his stay. Under Tressel, Phillips has coached in three national championship games including this past season at OSU and in 1992 and 1991 at YSU. The Penguins won the Division IAA title in 1991.

A native of New Middletown, Ohio, and a 1991 graduate of Toledo, Phillips led his high school alma mater, Springfield Local, to back-to-back state playoff appearances. His 1999 team won the first of consecutive league championships and made the first of those two playoff appearances, while his 2000 squad went undefeated in the regular season and returned to the postseason, where it to the state quarterfinals. After four years at Springfield Local (1997-2000) Phillips moved onto Salem High School, where he spent five seasons (2001-05) and guided his teams to better records every season, culminating with a league runner-up finish in 2005. In addition, he guided the school to consecutive winning records in 2004 and 2005, a feat that was accomplished for the first time in 30 years at the school.

While an undergraduate student at Toledo, Phillips got his coaching career started at Toledo St. Francis DeSales and Sylvania Northview. After earning a bachelors degree in education from UT in 1991, he received a master's degree in educational administration from Youngstown State in 1995.

DOUG BOERSMA
DIRECTOR
ATHLETIC TRAINING
FIFTH SEASON

Doug Boersma begins his fifth season as the director of athletic training for the Falcons' 18-sport intercollegiate athletic program. Boersma came to BGSU in the summer of 2003 after serving as an assistant athletic trainer at Notre Dame since August 1999. Boersma oversees a staff of 20 which includes full-time certified athletic trainers, graduate assistants and student athletic trainers.

At Notre Dame, Boersma worked closely with the Irish football program and oversaw the day-to-day training needs of the men's ice hockey program as well as men's soccer and lacrosse during his four years. He also gained experience as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Kentucky and as a student athletic trainer at Purdue. At UK, Boersma worked directly with the football and women's gymnastics programs. At Purdue, the Highland, Ind., native worked with the men's basketball, football, baseball and women's tennis teams.

Boersma earned his degree in athletic training from Purdue in 1997 and also earned his master's degree in health promotion from Kentucky in 1999. The 31-year old native of Highland, Ind., and his wife, Cari, have two daughters, McKenna, born in December of 2002, and Ashlyn who was born in January of 2005.

ANNETTE DAVIDSON
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINING
FOURTH SEASON WITH FOOTBALL

Assistant athletic trainer Annette Davidson is responsible for the supervision, care, prevention, and rehabilitation of athletic injuries for the Falcon football, softball, and men and women's cross country teams. She also over sees the graduate assistant at men's soccer and women's track. While at BGSU Annette has worked with women's basketball, volleyball, soccer, track and gymnastics teams, and the men's soccer team. She is the Coordinator of the Wellness Committee for Student Athletes, and a member of the Positive Image Committee that educates the campus community about size diversity, body esteem, and health. Annette is the liaison to the curriculum department for the athletic training students and manages the students in the curriculum program.

Davidson was invited to work as an athletic trainer at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colorado. She was also a member of the Olympic Sports Medicine Team, serving as an athletic trainer for the USA Track and Field Team at the Goodwill Games in New York City. As an undergraduate at BGSU she majored in health and physical education K-12. She still holds her certification in teaching. While receiving her masters degree she served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the men's baseball and soccer teams, and the Ballet Program at the University of Akron.

A native of North Canton, Ohio and a graduate of BGSU, Davidson is certified by the National Athletic Trainers' Association and licensed by the Ohio Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy, and Athletic Trainers Board. Davidson earned a Masters of Science degree in Education from The University of Akron. She and her husband, Ray Novak, reside in Bowling Green.

Providing leadership in education and in diversity, the Mid-American Conference moves into its 61st year of service to the student-athlete.

Since its inception in 1946, the Mid-American Conference has progressively grown and developed into one of the most aggressive Division I conferences in the country. Under the guidance of Commissioner Rick Chryst, the seventh commissioner in the history of the league, the MAC has responded to the ever changing landscape of membership issues and member standards in the fast-paced environment of collegiate athletics.

In May of 2007, three MAC institutions – the University of Akron, Ball State University and the University at Buffalo – were among the 10 NCAA Division I-A athletic departments recognized for excellence in the area of diversity. The achievements were presented by the Laboratory for Diversity in Sport at Texas A&M University.

In addition, Akron and Kent State were noted for Diversity Strategy; Akron and Toledo for African American Graduation; Female Student-Athletes; Ball State and Kent State for African American Graduation; Male Student-Athletes; Buffalo for Employee Diversity; Sex; and Ball State and Buffalo for Employee Diversity: Values and Attitudes.

In a report issued in September of 2006, the MAC had the highest percentage of public institutions with a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 70 percent or above (8 of 12 schools) and a GSR of 50 percent or more (12 of 12 schools). In football GSR, the MAC led all other I-A leagues as eight of the 12 schools topped the 70 percent or better rate. The MAC's total of eight at 70 percent-plus accounted for 32 percent of the 25 public institutions nationwide that posted 70 percent or better.

MAC football produced four bowl teams in 2006, the second most in league history in a single season. The 2007 gridiron season welcomes the addition of Temple University to the East Division.

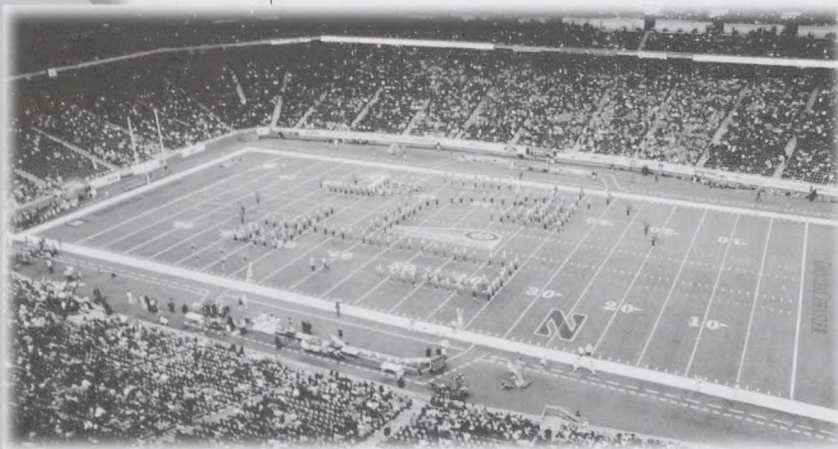

MAC women's basketball produced two firsts in 2007. Bowling Green became the first MAC women's basketball team to advance as far as the Sweet 16 in the NCAA Tournament, and Northern Illinois' guard Stephanie Raymond became the first-ever MAC player in the WNBA when she played for the Chicago Sky after being a second round draft selection.

Recent past MAC noteworthy accomplishments include that of former Kent State President Dr. Carol Cartwright. She chaired the Executive Committee of the NCAA Board of Directors from 2002-2005 during a legislative process that keyed legislation relative to I-A status.

In addition, in an NCAA report released in October 2004, the MAC led the 11 I-A conferences in long-term graduation rates for football student-athletes at public institutions.

The conference now has national leadership positions on the following NCAA committees: - Ad Hoc Committee to Review Issues Related to Gender and Equity (Carol Cartwright, CEO, Kent State); Division I Board of Directors (Sidney Ribeau, CEO, Bowling Green); Championships/Competition Cabinet (Brad Bates, Miami); Committee on Academic Performance (Brad Bates); Committee on Athletics Certification (Shonna Brown, MAC); General Counsel (Eileen K. Jennings, Central Michigan); Academics/Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet (Derrick Gragg, Eastern Michigan and Warde Manual, Buffalo); Infractions Appeals (Susan Lipnickey, Miami); Legislative Review and Interpretations (James Klein, Toledo); Management Council (Dell Robinson, MAC); Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (Stephanie Swiger, Bowling Green); Executive Committee (Sidney Ribeau, CEO, Bowling Green); Playing Rules Oversight Panel (Rick Chryst, MAC); Walter Byers Scholarship Committee (Lee Meserve, Bowling Green);

Furthermore, the MAC has representation on the Division I Sport Committees and related governing groups: - Baseball (David Heeke, Central Michigan); Football Issues (Kirby Hocutt, Ohio); Men's Basketball (Laing Kennedy, Kent State); Men's Basketball Issues (Charlie Coles, Miami); Men's Soccer (Mary Lu Gribshaw, Akron); Men's and Women's Track and Field (Rich Ceronie, Buffalo); Women's Basketball (Jim Phillips, Northern Illinois); Men's Basketball Rules (Reggie Witherspoon, Buffalo); Gymnastics (Jerry Reighard, Central Michigan); Softball Rules (Dee Abrahamson, Northern Illinois).

From Super Bowl quarterback Ben Roethlisberger (Miami University), British Open winner Ben Curtis (Kent State University), World Series winning manager Bob Brenly (Ohio University) and Olympic bobsled team member Brock Kreitzburg (University of Toledo), the Mid-American Conference continues to excel in producing leaders in the world of athletics.

MAC Milestones

In March of 2006, Chryst and Cleveland Cavaliers President Len Komoroski announced that the Mid-American Conference Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments would remain in Cleveland at Quicken Loans Arena through 2011. The MAC also announced a format change for both tournaments, bringing all 12 men's and women's teams to Cleveland beginning in 2007. The MAC also co-hosted the 2007 Women's Final Four at Quicken Loans Arena, after successfully hosting the 2006 NCAA Women's Basketball Regional at Quicken Loans Arena.

In 2006, Chryst also announced a new, five-year relationship with International Sports Properties (ISP), Inc. to oversee and coordinate the league's marketing and sponsorship rights. ISP, which currently manages 29 college properties nationwide, is considered the leader in the collegiate sports marketing industry. The MAC will be ISP's first conference property.

ISP will be responsible for managing, and ultimately growing, the MAC's stable of corporate partners, which currently stands at nine - FirstEnergy, Huntington Bank, Kraft, Marathon Oil, GMAC Financial Services, Aeropostale, Gatorade, Automart.com and Sirius satellite radio. FirstEnergy has been the title sponsor for the men's basketball tournament since its first year in Cleveland in March 2000. Kraft has been associated with the women's basketball tournament since 2001, and Marathon Oil will be sponsoring the football championship for the third time in 2007.

History of the MAC

Based in Cleveland since July 1999 following a 15-year stay in Toledo, Ohio, the MAC has established historic measurements in both football and men's and women's basketball since its move to Northeast Ohio.

The Mid-American Conference was founded as a five-school league on February 24, 1946 in Columbus, Ohio with Ohio, Butler, Cincinnati, Wayne State and Western Reserve admitted as charter members. The Mid-American Conference has 12 full-time schools and a 13th, Temple, for football only. Comprising the East Division is the University of Akron (joined in 1992), Bowling Green State University (1952), University at Buffalo (1998), Kent State University (1951), Miami University (1947) and Ohio University (1946). The West Division members are Ball State University (1973), Central Michigan University (1971), Eastern Michigan University (1971), Northern Illinois University (1975-86, 1997), University of Toledo (1950) and Western Michigan University (1947).

In 1946 men's basketball was the first competitive sport in the MAC, which now sponsors a total of 23 sports. Women's sports were brought into the conference's structure in 1980.

For men, championships (11) are sponsored in football, basketball, baseball, cross country, soccer, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, wrestling, golf and tennis.

For women, championships (12) are sponsored in basketball, softball, volleyball, cross country, field hockey, golf, soccer, swimming and diving, gymnastics, indoor track and field, outdoor track and tennis.

MOTOR CITY BOWL

The Motor City Bowl will feature teams from the Mid-American Conference and the Big Ten.

In 2003, BGSU defeated Northwestern 28-24, in the first ever post-season meeting between the two conferences.

Under the direction of former Michigan State University head football coach George Perles, the Motor City Bowl has teamed with the MAC since the Bowl's inception in 1997 to feature some of the nation's top players in a highly competitive postseason environment.

Perles, the bowl's Chief Executive Officer, and Ken Hoffman, Executive Director, have secured sponsorship from the Big Three Automakers – Ford, Daimler Chrysler and General Motors.

The MAC and the Motor City Bowl have a perpetual contract assuring the conference and the Bowl of an affiliation for as long as the bowl and the conference both exist.

Played at Ford Field, also home of the National Football League's Detroit Lions, the Motor City Bowl is easily accessible to MAC fans and alumni.

GMAC BOWL

With 2006 marking its eighth season, the GMAC Bowl, has an agreement with the Mid-American Conference to provide a team from the league to face the No. 2 choice from Conference USA in the annual post-season holiday bowl game.

In 2004, BGSU defeated Memphis, 52-35 in the Falcons' first visit to Mobile.

The inaugural Mobile Alabama Bowl in 1999 featured TCU stopping East Carolina 28-14. In the 2000 contest had the Horned Frogs dropping a 28-21 decision to Southern Miss before a capacity crowd of 40,600. In 2001, Marshall rallied from a 30-point deficit to edge East Carolina, 64-61 in double overtime in the highest scoring game in bowl history.

2006 In Review

WISCONSIN POSTGAME NOTES

The University of Wisconsin picked up a 35-14 victory over the Bowling Green State University in the 'Clash in Cleveland' Saturday night (Sept. 2). The game, the season opener for both teams, was held at Cleveland Browns Stadium. To follow are a few notes from the game ...

In his first collegiate game, BGSU redshirt freshman Freddie Barnes rushed for 158 yards on 29 carries, scoring both Falcon touchdowns ... Barnes' total set the school record for rushing yards in a game by a BG quarterback ... the old mark was 148 yards, set by Josh Harris in a win at Ohio on Nov. 10, 2001.

Barnes, on the second play from scrimmage of the game, rushed up the middle for 17 yards on his first career carry.

Barnes' first pass attempt was a completion to Sean O'Drobinak for 12 yards later on that opening drive.

Pete Winovich had his first career carry on the eighth play of that opening drive, a four-yard carry that gave BG a first down ... nine of the Falcons' 10 plays on that opening drive were running plays.

Barnes capped that drive with a 21-yard touchdown run, giving the Falcons a 6-0 lead. On the drive, Barnes had five carries for 49 yards.

It marked the second-straight year that BG has scored on the opening drive of the season.

Sean Ellis made his first collegiate appearance on the next play, successfully converting the extra-point try for a 7-0 BG lead.

Wisconsin tied the score on the Badgers' opening drive ... on UW's second drive, the Falcons held on downs, taking over at their own 4-yard line ... Cody Basler had the defensive stop on the Badgers' fourth-down rush.

Zach Charles had his first career reception early in the second quarter, a 4-yard catch from Barnes.

Devon Parks had a sack of UW quarterback John Stocco in the second quarter, for an 11-yard loss ... the sack was the 14th of Parks' career.

Drew Nystrom recovered a teammate's fumble in the second quarter.

Kenny Lewis intercepted a Stocco pass in the end zone with 4:36 left in that quarter ... the interception was the second of his career ... that pass was deflected by P.J. Mahone prior to Lewis picking it off.

On the next play, Chris Bullock had the first rushing attempt of his career, gaining two yards.

Six players made their first career start for the Falcons ... on offense, WR Zach Charles and QB Freddie Barnes made their initial starts ... defensively, five Falcons started for the first time -- DE Jacob Hardwick, LB John Haneline, FS Jarrett Sanderson, SS P.J. Mahone and CB Kenny Lewis.

Players that saw their first action of their respective collegiate careers included Alonso Rojas, Tarell Lewis, Jahmal Brown, Kevin Colyer, Chris Bullock, Sean Ellis, Cody Basler and Trevor Frericks.

A crowd of 30,307 watched the game, the first-ever collegiate football game held in Cleveland Browns Stadium.

Pete Winovich rushed for 16 yards out of a punt formation early in the third quarter, giving the Falcons a first down ... the gain was the longest of his BG career, in his first game as a fullback ... Winovich had 20 yards on two carries on the night.

The Falcons put together a 16-play, 79-yard drive in the third quarter, capped by a Barnes 1-yard run ... during that TD drive, Barnes went over the 100-yard mark on the ground for the game ... he is the first Falcons quarterback to eclipse the century mark on the ground since Josh Harris gained 138 yards on Oct. 12, 2002, at Central Michigan ... and, as mentioned, he went on to set the school record for rushing yards by a QB in a game.

BUFFALO POSTGAME NOTES

The triple-overtime game was the first in school history ... more on overtime games later in these notes.

The Falcons had 570 yards of total offense to the Bulls' 243 ... the Falcons are now 21-2 since the 2001 season when gaining 500 yards or more... BGSU had a total of 356 yards rushing on the ground, with three Falcon players picking up at least 97 yards.

Those three players were Anthony Turner, Freddie Barnes and Dan Macon ... Turner led all players with as career-high 127 yards on the ground, on 23 carries, also a personal best ... he scored one touchdown.

Barnes had a total of 99 yards on 20 carries, scoring two touchdowns for the second time in as many games ... Macon had 97 yards and a score on 12 rushes...

Through the air, Turner completed 16 of his 23 passes for a total of 204 yards ... he had a career-best three TD strikes, including two to Ruben Ruiz.

Turner finished with a career-best 331 yards of total offense.

Ruiz had four catches for 62 yards, with his first TD coming with just 1:30 left in regulation and his second TD catch coming in the third overtime... it was his first multi-score game of his career.

The last two games at Perry Stadium have seen a total of five overtime periods played ... last year's final game for the Brown and Orange went to two overtimes vs. Toledo.

The Falcons are now 3-2 all-time in overtime games, including a 2-2 record at 'The Doyt' ... BGSU lost a 1996 game to Western Michigan in the first year OT was played (16-13, Nov. 9, 1996), before winning the final contest of the season at UCF three years later (33-30, Nov. 20, 1999) ... BGSU downed WMU by a 48-45 score four years ago (Oct. 19, 2002) before falling to UT, 44-41, in double-OT last November.

There were two weather delays in the game, lasting a total of one hour and 47 minutes.

The Falcons opened the game with a six-play, 71-yard scoring drive to take a 7-0 lead ... all six plays were rushing plays, with Macon, Turner and Pete Winovich carrying the ball two times each ... Winovich ran the ball twice for a career-best total of 37 yards, including a career-long 20-yarder, while Macon had 18 yards on the ground in that drive ... Turner had 16 yards, with his second carry going for a nine-yard score ... it was the fourth rushing TD of Turner's career.

The scoring drive marked the second-straight week that the Falcons had taken the opening kickoff and marched right down the field for a touchdown.

Immediately after the Sean Ellis PAT, the teams were taken off the field due to lightning ... the delay began at 3:06 p.m.

The game was resumed after a delay of 1:08 ... when it resumed, at 4:14 p.m., the Bulls struck back quickly ... true freshman Naaman Roosevelt, making the first kickoff return of his career, went 94 yards for a touchdown.

With 6:54 remaining in the first quarter, the teams were taken off the field for another weather delay ... this delay began at 4:30 p.m., and the game resumed at 5:09 p.m.

The game was the 41st home opener in Perry Stadium history ... BGSU is now 29-11-1 in such games since the facility opened in 1966.

Redshirt freshman Michael Ream had the first fumble recovery of his career with 6:54 left in the first quarter.

On the next possession (after the day's second weather delay), Barnes scored his third touchdown of the season on a one-yard run in that opening quarter.

In that first quarter, the Falcons rushed for 148 yards on 22 carries, averaging 6.7 yards per rush.

Sophomore Erique Dozier had his first career sack in the second quarter... Dozier finished with 19 tackles, a pass deflection, and two tackles for a loss.

FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL POSTGAME NOTES

FIU recognized Betty Perry prior to kickoff. Mrs. Perry is the wife of former BGSU football and baseball player Chuck Perry who served as the first president of FIU.

Chuck Perry also hired Doyt Perry as the first FIU AD, Dick Young as the baseball coach and later athletic director and former BGSU President Bill Jerome as Provost.

Former head coach Gary Blackney was part of the pre game tailgating crowd. Blackney is enjoying his first year of retirement after serving as the defensive coordinator at Maryland from 2001-2005.

Former Falcon football player Jim Perry (1965-67), and his wife Mary Ann hosted a reception on Friday for new A.D. Greg Christopher. Former running back Vic DeOrio (1955-57) was among those attending the event.

BGSU has now won four straight road games dating back to last year (Buffalo, Kent State, Miami and Florida International).

BGSU is 40-1 when leading after three quarters since the 2001 season.

While gaining its first ever win over a Sun Belt Conference school, BGSU improved to a MAC-best 13-6 against Division IA non-conference foes since 2001.

Sophomore Corey Partridge made his first start of the season. Partridge missed the Wisconsin and Buffalo games due to injury. He caught a team-high five passes for 79 yards in his return and returned two punts for 20 yards.

Senior Brandon Jones had a career-long 37-yard kickoff return to start the game.

The Falcons scored on their first possession for the third straight game. Sophomore Anthony Turner hit freshman Freddie Barnes for a two-yard score. It was Barnes' first career TD reception and Turner's fourth TD toss of the season.

Barnes, who scored a rushing touchdown later in the contest, now has scored two TDs in each of his three career games to date. He also became the first Falcon since Josh Harris to throw for a TD and rush for a score and catch a pass for a score in a single game. Harris did the same against Northwestern in 2001. Barnes completed six of 12 passes for 57 yards and rushed for 70 yards on 16 carries. He is averaging 109 yards per game on the ground this season.

Turner completed 12 of 22 passes for 185 yards and rushed for 59 yards. He has completed 62.2 percent of his passes this season.

Senior Devon Parks had his 15th career sack in the first quarter. * Sophomore Antonio Smith had his first sack of the season late in the second quarter and sophomore Dylar Briggs would add his second sack of the year in the second half.

Following a Turner interception, sophomore Kenny Lewis had his second interception of the season in the end zone. He led the Falcons with seven tackles.

Junior Dan Macon had a career-long 30-yard reception and also had a 25-yard reception later in the game. His 55 yards receiving in a game is a career-best.

Barnes later threw his first career TD pass to junior Sean O'Drobinak in the second quarter. It was O'Drobinak's fifth career TD reception. O'Drobinak finished with two catches for 32 yards.

The Falcons scored a touchdown on the ensuing kickoff as junior Loren Hargrove forced a fumble and freshman Jerrett Sanderson scooped the fumble and raced nine-yards for the TD. It is the first fumble return for a score for BGSU since Mitchell Crossley went 30 yards for a TD in 2004 against Eastern Michigan. Hargrove also was involved in a special teams fumble which led to a score against Toledo in 2004.

Sanderson had a monster game as, in addition to his TD, he had the first two interceptions of his brief BGSU career. The second of those two picks came in the end zone on the final play of the game.

Freshman Sean Ellis made his first career field goal, a 38-yarder to end the first half and would add a 25-yard effort to seal the game in the final three minutes.

Senior Kenneth Brantley caught two third down passes for 35 yards. Senior Ruben Ruiz also caught a pass for 25 yards.

Freshman Calvin Wiley had a career-high four tackles. Seventeen different defenders had stops for BGSU.

Freshman Chris Bullock had 18 yards on four carries, both career-highs.

KENT STATE POSTGAME NOTES

The Falcons lost at home to Kent State for the first time since 1972. BGSU saw a 15-game home winning streak in the series come to an end. Despite the loss, the Falcons still hold a commanding 52-16-6 advantage in the series.

Freshman Chris Bullock carried the ball 17 times for 99 yards, shattering his career bests in both categories. Bullock entered the day with career totals of six rushes for 22 yards. He had a career-long 16-yard run in the game. Bullock also caught three passes for a total of 24 yards.

Freshman quarterback Tyler Sheehan made his collegiate debut, playing most of the second half. Sheehan completed eight passes in 14 attempts for 64 yards. Sheehan is the first true freshman to see action at the QB position since Josh Harris in 2000.

Another freshman, Sean Ellis, kicked a 31-yard field goal midway through the second quarter. The field goal was the third of the season for Ellis, and his first at Perry Stadium.

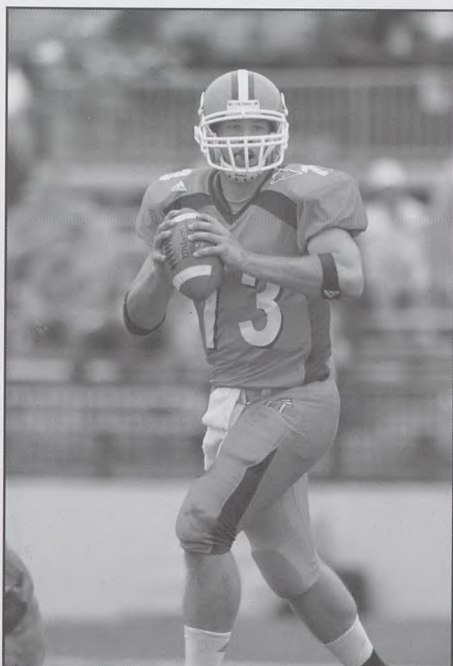

Sophomore Nate Waldron had the first two rushes of his career, gaining a total of 18 yards. He had a 14-yarder on his first carry.

Senior Kenneth Brantley had a career-high 44 yards receiving on three catches.

Senior Terrel White had 10 tackles to lead the Falcons. Sophomore John Haneline and freshman Tarell Lewis made nine tackles apiece in the game. Senior Brad Williams led the Falcons with two tackles for loss.

Freshman nose guard D.J. Young became the 15th player this season to start his first career game.

Starters P.J. Mahone (SS), Anthony Turner (QB), Antonio Smith (CB) and Nick Davis (NG) did not play due to injury.

OHIO POSTGAME NOTES

The Falcons now have won five consecutive MAC road games. BGSU went a perfect 4-0 in conference road contests a year ago.

Overall, BGSU has won five consecutive road games and the Falcons are 2-0 on the road this season.

BGSU now leads the series with Ohio, 35-21-2, and the Brown and Orange have won five consecutive meetings vs. the Bobcats.

Freshman Chris Bullock had the first triple-digit rushing game of his young BGSU career. Bullock had a total of 114 yards on the ground vs. the Bobcats. Coupled with his 99-yard total vs. Kent State last week, Bullock now has a total of 213 rushing yards over the last two games after entering that KSU contest with a career total of 22 yards.

Freddie Barnes, in his first playing season, has scored two touchdowns four times in his five games. Barnes had two rushing scores at Ohio, and now has a total of eight TDs (seven rushing, one receiving) in his year career.

Senior wide receiver Ruben Ruiz's wife, Rebecca, gave birth to a 6-lb., 2-oz., son, Ruben Isaac, this (Saturday) morning at 5:30 a.m. Ruiz was with the team at the time of his son's birth.

The Falcons had a season-high four sacks and totalled nine tackles for loss. Sophomore DE Diyrall Briggs had a career-high two of those sacks, and forced a fumble by Ohio QB Austin Everson in the third quarter. That fumble was recovered by sophomore DB Antonio Smith.

For Briggs, the fumble forced was the first of his career, and the fumble recovery was the third of Smith's tenure at BG.

Briggs has four sacks this season and 10 in his BGSU career.

BGSU scored on the team's first drive of the game for the fourth time in five contests this season. The Falcons were 2-for-2 on fourth-down conversions during that drive, including a six-yard run by freshman punter Alonso Rojas on a fourth-and-5 play.

Also on that opening drive, Bullock picked up a 30-yard gain on fourth-and-2, giving BG a first-and-goal at the four-yard line. The 10-play, 69-yard drive culminated with Barnes' first TD of the day.

Freshman Jahmal Brown had the first interception of his collegiate career.

Sophomore QB Anthony Turner started the game after sitting out the Kent State contest due to injury.

Barnes' second rushing TD of the day gave the Falcons a 14-3 lead.

After the Bobcats cut the BG margin to 14-9, the Falcons responded with a 10-play, 80-yard touchdown drive. BGSU was 2-for-2 on third-down conversions on that drive, including a Turner-to-Barnes 19-yard pass play and an eight-yard run by Bullock.

The big play on that drive was a pass by sophomore Corey Partridge that was complete to Barnes for 31 yards, putting the Falcons in business at the Bobcats' five-yard line. Bullock took the ball the rest of the way on the next play, scoring his first collegiate TD.

Junior Loren Hargrove intercepted an Everson pass with under a minute to play in the game. It was the first pick of his career.

Barnes caught a career-high four passes for 68 yards, including the career-long 31-yarder from Partridge. Barnes also rushed for 37 yards and the two TDs.

Senior LB Terrel White, the top tackler in the MAC, had 13 stops, while sophomore John Haneline and Brown added eight tackles each.

Fifth-year senior Kenneth Brantley made his first career start, as did junior fullback Pete Winovich.

BGSU held a team scoreless in the first quarter for the first time this season. In doing so, they hold the Bobcats to just 54 yards in 16 plays.

Senior DT Brad Williams had his second sack of the season and sixth of his career.

The Falcons did not allow a touchdown in a half for the first time since playing at Buffalo last season.

OHIO STATE POSTGAME NOTES

The game marked the first time in school history that BGSU has faced the top-ranked team in the country. The Falcons played at #2 Oklahoma in 2004, at #4/5 Ohio State in 2003, at #4 Michigan in 2000 and at #9 OSU in 1997.

Ohio State now leads the all-time series with the Falcons by a 4-0 count. The Buckeyes posted victories by scores of 17-6 in 1992, 44-13 in 1997 and 24-17 in 2003, all in Columbus.

Redshirt freshman RB Chris Bullock made his first career start. Bullock becomes the 18th different Falcon to earn a starting assignment for the first time in 2006.

Bullock finished with a game-high 72 yards on 21 carries. He now has a total of 285 yards on the ground over the last three games.

The final statistics were rather balanced, as the Falcons had 339 yards of total offense to the Buckeyes' 387. Ohio State held a narrow advantage in first downs, 18-15, and BGSU had 160 rushing yards to OSU's 139. The Bucks held the ball for 30:33 to BG's 29:27.

BGSU outscored Ohio State, 7-0, in the third quarter. The Falcons opened the second half with a 15-play, 85-yard drive that took 8:39. The Falcons picked up five first downs on the drive, which culminated with a 12-yard pass from Anthony Turner to Corey Partridge, who made a one-handed grab in the end zone.

Partridge, who did not have a reception in the first half, had three grabs for 39 yards on the drive. On the play before the TD, he had a diving catch for eight yards on a fourth-and-6 play.

For Partridge, the TD catch was his first of the season and the second of his career. Turner has thrown for five TDs this fall and seven in his career. Both Partridge and Turner are in their second playing season for the Brown and Orange.

The 8:39 drive was the Falcons' longest possession of the season.

Following that touchdown drive, with 6:21 left in the third quarter, the Falcons had outgained the Buckeyes for the game. The 85-yard drive gave BGSU a total of 244 yards on 46 plays to that point, while the Buckeyes had 33 plays for 195 total yards through the game's first 38-plus minutes.

Turner was 16-of-24 through the air for 179 yards. He had one touchdown and one interception.

Senior Brad Williams had his third sack of the season and seventh of his career in the second quarter, handing OSU quarterback Troy Smith and the Buckeyes a five-yard loss.

Senior Devon Parks had his third sack of the season, and the 16th of his career, in the third quarter.

Dan Macon had 63 yards on three rushes, all coming on BGSU's final drive. That total included a 54-yard run up the middle, the longest of his career. The tote more than doubled Macon's previous long run of 25 yards.

EASTERN MICHIGAN POSTGAME NOTES

The Falcons are now 53-22-10 in Homecoming games after Saturday's win ... BGSU has now won six consecutive Homecoming contests at Perry Stadium.

Senior Terrel White had the first two interceptions of his career ... on his first pick, with just under five minutes remaining in the second quarter, he returned the ball 47 yards to the EMU four-yard line to set up a touchdown run by Freddie Barnes on the next play.

White's second INT of the day, and of his career, came in the game's final minute to clinch the win ... he picked off EMU's Tyler Jones and returned the ball 17 yards to the Eagles' 25-yard line.

Just for good measure, White also had his first sack of the season, coming in the third quarter, and also had a quarterback hurry ... as a team, the Falcons had four sacks and six hurries.

Senior Devon Parks had two sacks in the game, giving him five on the season and 18 in his career ... Parks is the Falcons' active career leader in that category.

Sophomore Diyral Briggs had the other BGSU sack ... it was his fourth of the year and the ninth of his career.

Freshman Jerett Sanderson had his third INT of the season ... the pick came after Erique Dozier tackled EMU QB Jones on a trick play, as Jones had caught a pass from Dontayo Gage.

Freshman Chris Bullock had a game-high 99 yards rushing and a touchdown ... his TD was a 15-yard run that erased a 21-17 EMU lead with 13:13 left in the final quarter ... that score capped a 12-play, 80-yard drive ... the score was Bullock's second rushing TD of the season.

Barnes' TD was his ninth of the season, with eight of those coming on the ground.

In the game, Barnes made his first career start at wide receiver.

Redshirt freshman DT Brady Minturn and junior WR Matt Emans each made their first start of the season ... that increases to 20 the number of Falcons who have made their first collegiate starts this season.

Freshmen Roger Williams and Tyrone Pronty each saw their first action of the season.

Sophomore Anthony Turner hooked up with soph Corey Partridge on a 33-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter ... the pass was Turner's sixth TD toss of the year and the eighth of his career ... for Partridge, the touchdown reception was his second in as many weeks and the third of his Falcon career.

Freshman kicker Sean Ellis made his fourth field goal of the season, a 23-yard effort with 6.6 seconds left in the first quarter.

Freshman punter Alonso Rojas averaged 37.4 yard on five kicks ... that included a career-long 62-yarder in the opening quarter. He placed four inside the 20-yard line.

CENTRAL MICHIGAN POSTGAME NOTES

For the Falcons, the loss snapped a five-game MAC road winning streak. BGSU's last road loss in conference play came at Toledo on Nov. 23, 2004.

Central Michigan improved to a perfect 5-0 in MAC play. It marks the Chippewas' first 5-0 start in league action since 1990.

Despite the loss, the Falcons still lead the all-time series with the Chippewas, 21-17. Central's win on Thursday snapped a five-game series winning streak for the Brown and Orange.

For the fifth time this season, redshirt freshman Freddie Barnes scored two touchdowns in a game. Barnes also turned the trick against Wisconsin, Buffalo, Florida International and Ohio. He now has a total of 11 TDs on the season.

On CMU's second possession of the game, midway through the opening quarter, Falcon sophomore Adrian Baker recovered a Chippewa fumble. For Davis, it marked his first career fumble recovery.

Redshirt sophomore Diyar Briggs sacked CMU quarterback Dan LeFevour with five-and-a-half minutes left in the opening quarter. For Briggs, the sack was his fifth of the season, giving him a total of 9.5 in his career.

With a number of injuries to the Falcon defensive line, junior Brandon Mack, normally an offensive lineman, was moved to the defensive side of the ball.

Redshirt freshman Chris Bullock ran for a team-high 91 yards on 20 carries in the game. Bullock now has a total of 497 yards this season, with 475 of those coming in his last five games.

The Falcons' first scoring drive of the game, coming in the second quarter, totaled 59 yards in nine plays. Bullock carried the ball six times for 42 yards on that drive.

Bullock carried the ball on the first five plays of that drive. He ran for back-to-back gains of nine and 12 yards to start the drive. After a three-yard gain on the next play, Bullock toted the ball for 13 yards to the CMU 22.

The drive culminated with a six-yard pass from Anthony Turner to Barnes with 7:58 remaining before halftime. For Barnes, it was his second receiving TD of the year.

On Central's ensuing possession, freshman Jerett Sanderson forced an Ontario Sneed fumble, which was recovered by classmate Jahmal Brown. For both Sanderson and Brown, the statistic marked the first of their respective careers (first FF for Sanderson, first FR for Brown).

On the ensuing drive, Turner completed a third-and-9 pass to Kenneth Brantley II for an 18-yard gain to the CMU 25-yard line. Later on that drive, on fourth-and-8, Turner found Barnes for a 19-yard pass to the Chippewas' four-yard line.

On another fourth-down play on that drive -- this time fourth-and-goal from the one -- Barnes scored on a direct snap. A Sean Ellis PAT cut the Central lead to 17-14 with 1:33 remaining in the half.

For Barnes, that TD, as mentioned, was his 11th of the year. It marked his ninth rushing score.

In the second quarter, the Falcons held the ball for a total of 10:24, and had seven first downs while allowing the Chippewas just one.

Officially, the Falcons were credited with two sacks in the game. On Central Michigan's first possession of the second half, Devon Parks tackled LeFevour behind the line twice in a three-play span. One of them, however, was credited as a tackle for loss, but not a sack. The one sack gives Parks a total of six this season and 19 in his career. His six sacks lead the Mid-American Conference, and his career total leads all active Falcons.

Brantley caught a career-long 28-yard pass from Turner midway through the fourth quarter. The catch gave him a total of three receptions in the game, tying his career best in that category. Brantley's total of 66 receiving yards in the game set a career standard.

Barnes caught swing passes from Turner on back-to-back plays early in the fourth quarter. For Barnes, the two grabs gave him a total of five on the night, a new career best, for a total of 43 yards.

Corey Partridge also had five receptions, for a team-leading 63 yards. His total included a 40-yard grab in the fourth quarter.

BGSU continues a three-game road swing with a trip to Philadelphia to play Temple on Saturday, Oct. 28.

TEMPLE POSTGAME NOTES

The Falcons had 27 first downs to Temple's 12, and BG had a total of 407 yards of offense to the Owls' 256.

Chris Bullock rushed for a career-high 182 yards on 29 carries, and scored both BGSU touchdowns.

Freshman WR Tyrone Pronty made his first collegiate start on Saturday. He is the 21st player to make his initial start in the Brown and Orange this season.

On Temple's opening drive, sophomore Kenny Lewis had an interception of Adam DiMichele. For Lewis, the interception was his third of the season and the fourth of his Falcon career.

On the very next play, Bullock scored on a 30-yard run. It marked the fifth time this season that BGSU had scored on its first possession of the game.

Pete Winovich was the Falcons' 'Keystone Captain,' as the Pennsylvania native joined the team's four 2006 captains for the coin toss.

With just over two-and-a-half minutes remaining in the first quarter, Terrel White sacked DiMichele for a seven-yard loss. Just over a minute later, White got to DiMichele behind the line once again, this time for a loss of nine yards. White would wind up with three sacks on the day, giving him four this season and seven in his Falcon career.

Bullock gained 67 yards on 10 carries in the opening quarter of play. By midway through the second quarter, he had reached the 100-yard mark.

The Falcons had what may have been the longest non-scoring drive in history, going 94 yards in 16 plays. On the 16th play, however, a Falcon fumble near the goal line went out the back of the end zone, giving Temple the ball on a touchback.

With 18 seconds left in the first half, John Haneline picked off a DiMichele pass. It was his first interception in 2006 and the second of his career.

Kenneth Brantley had a career-high six catches for 59 yards. Four of his receptions went for first downs, including a 10-yard catch on a fourth-and-9 play.

Bullock had 120 yards rushing in the first half alone, setting a career best. His previous top single-game effort was 114 yards in the Falcons' win at Ohio.

Tyler Sheehan entered the game on the first drive of the second half, and found Brantley for a 15-yard gain on his first throw.

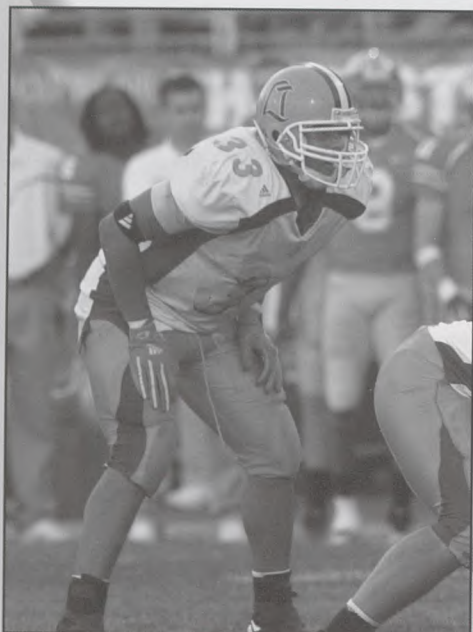

With 4:38 left in the third quarter, White picked up his third sack of the day, for an 18-yard loss to the Temple one-yard line. The Falcon defense forced Temple to punt, and wound up with good field position for the next drive.

On that drive, Sheehan found Bullock for an eight-yard pass on fourth-and-seven. Bullock's second effort gave the Falcons a first down at the Temple 16-yard line.

Bullock capped the drive with a one-yard run for a score with 14:08 left in the fourth quarter. It marked the first two-TD game of his career for Bullock, who had entered the game with two scores on the season.

Erique Dozier had a fourth-quarter sack on a third-down play, and the Falcons blocked a Temple field-goal attempt on the next play. It was the Falcons' second blocked kick of the season.

On the very next play, Sheehan found Pronty for a 10-yard gain. It was Pronty's first career reception.

AKRON POSTGAME NOTES

Falcon quarterback Anthony Turner rushed for 105 yards and three touchdowns, while completing 20-of-36 passes for 192 yards and a score.

For Turner, the 20 completions marked a season-high total, and tied for the second-most connections in his career. Turner completed a career-best 22 passes in last year's UA game, and also had 20 completions vs. Western Michigan in 2005.

Sophomore Corey Partridge caught 10 of Turner's passes Saturday, for a game-high total of 107 yards. Partridge's game was the second 100-yard receiving contest of his career. He had 160 yards receiving in the 2005 game at Wisconsin.

Partridge's total of 10 receptions set a new career standard, topping his total of eight catches in that 2005 game at UW. His 10-reception, 107-yard game came after he spent Wednesday night in the hospital due to a stomach ailment.

Fifth-year senior DL Brad Williams and redshirt junior TE Sean O'Drobinak each returned to the Falcon lineup after missing several games apiece due to injuries. O'Drobinak had sat out of the last two contests, at Central Michigan and Temple, while Williams had missed three consecutive games, having not played since the Ohio State game.

However, fifth-year senior LB Terrel White and redshirt junior Drew Nystrom each missed the UA game with injuries.

Sophomore DB Kenny Lewis joined the Falcons' four season captains as a captain for Saturday's game vs. the Zips.

The Zips led by a 7-0 score after the first quarter, having gained 146 total yards to the Falcons' 51.

On the first play of the second quarter, though, Turner found Partridge down the middle for a 28-yard gain on third-and-25.

Turner capped that drive with a 1-yard touchdown plunge. The Falcons' drive covered 80 yards in 19 plays, and took exactly eight minutes. It marked BGSU's longest drive of the year in terms of both total plays and time elapsed.

On BGSU's first drive of the second quarter, Partridge caught a 20-yard pass in traffic, setting up the Falcons at the Akron 30. After a pass interference call on the next play, Chris Bullock rumbled around right end for 14 yards to the one, and Turner went over left tackle for a touchdown on the next play.

For Turner, the touchdown was his third rushing score of the season and the sixth of his career. It also marked his first career two-TD game. Of course, he would up those totals to four rushing TDs in 2006 and seven in his career later in the game.

BGSU's first two TD drives covered 80 and 70 yards, respectively.

With 12 seconds left in the first half, Kenny Lewis picked off a Luke Getsy pass in the end zone. For Lewis, the pick was his team-leading fourth of the season and the fifth of his career.

On the Zips' opening drive of the third quarter, Devon Parks got to Getsy for a sack on third down. The sack was Parks' eighth of the season, most on the team, and the 21st of his career, leading all active Falcons.

BGSU's first drive of the second half was exclusively on the ground, until the final play. After eight rushing plays, Turner found Pete Winovich for an eight-yard scoring pass. The play was Winovich's first career score. The point-after try by Sean Ellis gave the Falcons a 21-14 lead with 8:24 remaining in the third quarter. BG ran eight times for 48 yards on the drive, prior to the seven-yard scoring pass.

On the ensuing kickoff, Matt Emans forced a fumble by UA's Brandon Anderson, that was recovered by the Zips. The play was reviewed and upheld.

Freddie Barnes made his first appearance of the game on the Falcons' next drive, a drive that began with 5:35 left in the third quarter. On the second play, Barnes caught a pass from Turner for 19 yards.

On a fourth-and-5 play with just over four minutes left in the fourth quarter, Turner found Partridge for a 25-yard gain to the Akron 39-yard line.

Partridge caught another pass two plays later, as mentioned going over the 100-yard mark for the second time in his Falcon career.

After Akron took a two-touchdown lead, 35-21, the Falcons responded with a 14-play, 80-yard drive. The 14th play saw Turner run for his third touchdown of the afternoon, an eight-yard run on a fourth-and-8 play with 2:14 left.

On the ensuing outside kick, taken by punter Alonso Rojas, an Akron player touched the ball before it went 10 yards, but did not catch it. Ruben Ruiz pounced on the ball at the BGSU 43-yard line with 2:09 left.

Two plays later, on third-and-10, Turner scrambled for a 13-yard gain to the Zips' 44. That rush put Turner over the 100-yard mark for the day.

Then, on a fourth-and-4 play, Ruiz came up big again, with a 17-yard catch-and-run to the UA 21. On another fourth-down play, this time with 16 seconds left, Ruiz caught a Turner pass in the end zone, but the Falcons were called for offensive pass interference to negate the play.

Defensively, Antonio Smith had nine tackles to lead the Falcons, while Jahmal Brown had eight.

MIAMI POSTGAME NOTES

This is the 15th nationally televised game for the Falcons since the 2003 season. The game aired on ESPN2.

Tonight's paid attendance was 25,616 ensuring that BGSU would exceed the NCAA requirement of averaging 15,000 fans per game for its five recognized home dates this season. For the season, BGSU averaged 15,606 per home date. The final audited paid attendance will take a day or two to confirm and final figures will be submitted to the NCAA in February.

The game was played in miserable conditions with a constant rain mixed with a 20-30 mile per hour wind coming out of the northeast.

Sophomore Erique Dozier sacked Miami QB Mike Kokal and the ball was recovered by the Falcons' Diyral Briggs. It was Dozier's third sack of the season and first career forced fumble. For Briggs it was his fourth career fumble recovery.

Senior Brad Williams had his fourth sack of the season and eighth of his career in the second quarter.

Junior tight end Sean O'Drobinak caught his first pass in four games, a 13-yard gain in the second quarter.

Briggs later added his own sack in the second quarter. It was Briggs seventh sack this season and 11.5 for his career.

Sophomore Anthony Turner needed just two carries and 47 yards late in the second to put BGSU on the scoreboard. He gained 16 on the first carry and a career-long 31-yard effort for the score. He finished with 91 yards rushing.

Sophomore Corey Partridge caught a team-high five passes for 77 yards.

The Falcons shut out an opponent in the first half for the first time this season. Miami was held to 83 yards of offense (14 rushing, 69 receiving). BGSU had 180 yards of total offense at the half with 88 yards coming on the ground and 92 through the air.

BGSU did not have a first down in the third quarter.

At the start of the fourth quarter, sophomore Kenny Lewis blocked a field goal attempt by Miami's Trevor kick to preserve a 7-3 BGSU lead. Lewis later blocked a PAT after a Miami TD.

BGSU drove 73 yards down to the Miami seven yard line in the final seconds but Sean Ellis' field goal attempts from 25 yards was wide to the left.

Senior Terrel White had a team-high 10 tackles. Sophomore John Haneline added nine stops.

Miami now leads the series 39-19-5.

TOLEDO POSTGAME NOTES

Redshirt sophomore Corey Partridge had 14 receptions to tie the single-game record ... Robert Redd had set the mark in 2002, in a game vs. Northern Illinois.

For Partridge, his previous career best had been 10 catches, in the game at Akron earlier this month (Nov. 4, 2006).

Partridge also set a career best in receiving yards, with 161, to top his previous career standard ... that previous best came in his first collegiate game, at Wisconsin last season.

The Falcons had 20 first downs to the Rockets' 16, and BGSU had a 322-315 advantage in total yards of offense.

Redshirt sophomore quarterback Anthony Turner completed 21-of-35 passes for 213 yards and three touchdowns ... he tied his career best in the latter category, having also thrown for three scores vs. Buffalo earlier this season.

Fifth-year senior Kenneth Brantley caught two of those TD passes ... for Brantley, they marked his first and second scores of his BG career, in his final game ... Brantley had a total of four receptions for 46 yards in the game, second behind Partridge in each category.

On BGSU's opening drive of the game, junior Pete Winovich ran up the middle on a fake punt, gaining seven yards on a fourth-and-3 play.

In his final game as a Falcon, Devon Parks got to Toledo QB Clint Cochran for a sack on a third-and-11 play with one minute left in the first half ... the play went for a loss of 10 yards ... for Parks, the sack was his team-leading ninth of the season and the 22nd of his illustrious BGSU career, most among active Falcons.

On the very next play, Partridge returned a punt for a total of 29 yards to the UT 49 ... a Rocket personal foul at the end of the play gave the Falcons the ball at the UT 34 with 49 seconds left in the half.

BGSU covered those 34 yards in just 35 seconds, on a six-play touchdown drive ... the big play on that drive was a 21-yard pass from Tyler Sheehan to Partridge, to the UT 1-yard line ... then, after a five-yard Falcon penalty, Partridge caught a six-yard TD pass from Turner ... Partridge accounted for all of the offense on that drive, with four receptions for 39 yards.

For Partridge, the catch was his third TD reception of 2006, and the fourth of his Falcon career.

In the second half, redshirt freshman Calvin Wiley became the 11th different player to return a kickoff for the Falcons this season.

Late in the third quarter, Partridge made a diving catch across the middle on a fourth-and-6 pass from Turner ... the gain was for 12 yards and a first down to the UT 21.

Two plays later, Turner scrambled to his right, took his time and found Brantley for a 21-yard touchdown pass with 35 seconds left in the quarter.

Partridge went over the 100-yard receiving mark for the third time in his career, but the second time in the last three games ... he also had triple-digit totals in the '05 game at Wisconsin and this year's Akron contest.

With 6:14 left in the fourth quarter, KB II had his second touchdown catch of the game, of the season and of his career. The play was reviewed and upheld.

With 2:32 left in the game, Partridge caught his 14th pass of the game, to match Redd's school record.

Turner's three-TD game gives him totals of 11 passing scores this season and 13 in his BGSU career.

Freshman Jarett Anderson led the Falcons with 13 tackles.

Sophomore Erique Dozier had nine stops and two tackles for a loss.

Senior Devon Parks had eight tackles and a sack and sophomore Dyrall Briggs had seven stops. Parks finished his career with 22 sacks.

Senior Terrel White had six tackles and finished the season with 101. He had 201 tackles in the last two years.

Senior defensive lineman Tommy Smith and senior defensive back Michael Woods both saw their first action of the season. They originally joined the team as walk-ons.

BGSU FOOTBALL HISTORY

Scott Mruczkowski and Mike Thaler celebrate the Falcons' 28-24 Motor City Bowl win over Northwestern in 2003. It marked the first-time in MAC history that a league school ever faced a Big Ten opponent in the post-season.

Since Frederick G. Beyerman, an instructor in the physical education department and the first athletic director, announced in July, 1919 that Bowling Green State Normal College would field an intercollegiate football team, a rich tradition has developed.

From that very first team, to the first squad to go unbeaten in 1928, to the first perfect record of the 1959 national college division champions, to, most recently, back-to-back seasons of nationally ranked division IA football.

From former head coach Warren Steller, to Max Minnich, the first BGSU player to be drafted by a professional team, to Fred Durig, the first All-America selection, to legendary head coach Doyt Perry, to Paul Miles, the only football player ever to have his jersey retired, to Dave Preston, the career rushing leader, to record-setting quarterback Brian McClure, to head coach Gregg Brandon, the Bowling Green State University football program has a tradition as rich as any in the Mid-American Conference, and many programs nationally.

Since 19 of the 30 males enrolled at Normal College banded together to form that first team, many different people, players, and games have combined to mold the lore of football at BGSU.

The following paragraphs will touch on many of the people and games which carved the Falcon football history.

The program got off to a rocky start losing its first seven games played.

Franklin Skibbie scored the first touchdown with BG's only points in the 10-6 loss to Findlay in the 1920 season opener.

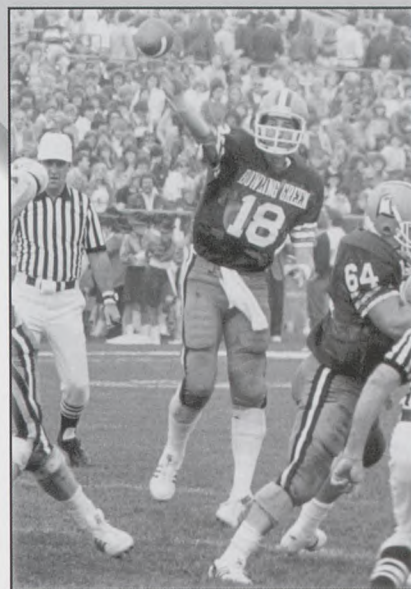

That team would post a 7-0 win over Kent State Normal College (Kent State) in the season finale to record the first win.

The 1921 squad was the first to win a conference title capturing the Northwest Conference championship with wins over Defiance, Findlay, and Toledo. BG posted a shutout of Findlay, scoring a school-record 151 points in one of the most talked-about games in school history. In the season opener against Kent State, played behind what is now Ridge Street School, the Falcons played possibly the quietest game in school history when all fans were prohibited from making noise because of an illness in the neighborhood.

The following season, BG held its first homecoming game on Nov. 4, 1922, which was played at the Fairgrounds. Bowling Green and Toledo battled to a 6-6 deadlock.

After having a different coach in each of its first five seasons, Warren Steller was selected to coach the 1924 squad, the beginning of a very successful 11-year tenure, the second-longest in school history. Steller was the first BGSU head coach to have an assistant when Paul Landis was hired in 1925.

Led by Chet Chapman, the first BG player to earn first team All-Ohio honors, the 1928 team posted the first unbeaten record while allowing just 18 points in seven games.

Brian McClure is one of only two players in MAC history (both from BG) to earn league MVP honors twice.

In 1936, the federal government offered to help Bowling Green financially in the construction of a new football stadium and the Trustees accepted the offer. University Stadium was dedicated on October 23, 1937 and served as the home of Falcon football until 1966 when Doyt L. Perry Stadium was built. University Stadium was located in what is now the center of campus directly west of Jerome Library.

BGSU FOOTBALL HISTORY

Urban Meyer served as head coach for the Falcons in 2001 and 2002 and guided BGSU to a 17-6 record and a #16 ranking in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll in 2002.

After playing mostly "local" teams previously in its history, the 1940 team made the longest trip in school history to that time to play Eastern Kentucky, a trip of approximately 400 miles.

In 1941, Robert Whittaker was named the head coach at Bowling Green after compiling an 11-year record of 89-19-2 at Sandusky High School. Whittaker's first of his 14 teams (the longest tenure in school history) tied Case Western Reserve for the Ohio Conference title and was thought to be one of the best teams ever, scoring 173 while allowing just 40.

After back-to-back losing seasons in 1953 and 1954, Doyt Perry began his legendary career as the Falcon head coach in 1955 and made an immediate impact. BG posted a 7-1-1 record, scoring 224 points while allowing only 53. This came on the heels of a 2-7 record the previous season.

Perry, whose teams never lost more than two games in any of his 10 seasons, led his 1959 squad to the first perfect record in school history at 9-0-0. In the process, the Falcons were named the mythical small college national champions by the Washington, D.C. Touchdown Club.

BG's closest game that season was a Mid-American Conference victory at Ohio University by a 13-9 count to wrap up the perfect season and national honor.

One of the most significant wins in school history was the 17-13 victory over 18th-ranked Purdue in 1972. A fourth quarter field goal by Don Taylor was the difference for Coach Don Nehlen and his Falcons.

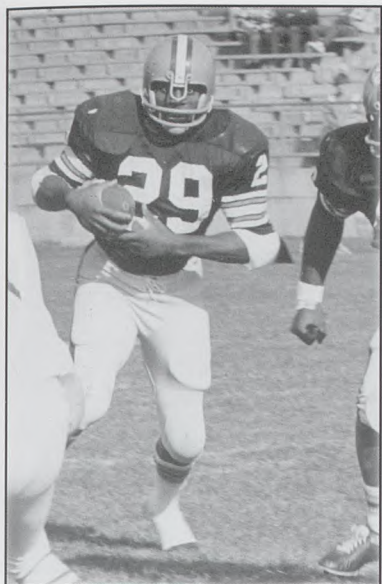

The following season, BG came within one game of repeating as national champions losing only a 14-7 decision to OU at home as the Bobcats claimed top national honors.

In 1961, Bowling Green played in its first bowl game, the Mercy Bowl at the Los Angeles Coliseum. The game against Fresno State was played to raise money to help defray the expenses of the families of 16 members of the Cal Poly San Luis Obispo football team who perished in a plane crash shortly after takeoff from Toledo Express Airport after a 1960 game against BG.

The game netted $170,000 for the memorial fund.

On October 24 and 25, 2003, ESPN's College Gameday made its home south of Doyt L. Perry Stadium. That marked the first time in MAC history that the nation's most watched college football pre-game show visited a league venue.

Paul Miles is second on the BG career rushing list with 3,238 yards while he is also the only football player to have his number retired. At the time of his graduation, he was only the third running back in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons.

The arrival of a skinny, much-heralded quarterback from Ravenna, Ohio in 1982 signaled the beginning of an 11-year period in which the Falcons would make four bowl appearances.

The quarterback was Brian McClure and all he would do in the next four seasons was lead the Falcons to a 34-12 record, a 19-1 record at home, two bowl games, and become only the second quarterback in NCAA history to pass for over 10,000 yards.

He became the starter in the third game of his freshman season, and despite missing the last two games of the regular season, he became the first freshman to be named the first team all-league quarterback.

He would rewrite the BG and MAC record books before his career was over, setting five NCAA records as well. McClure still holds numerous school and MAC records.

In 1991, Gary Blackney was tabbed as the 14th head football coach, and much like the arrival of McClure, he made an immediate impact on the program.

In his first season, he took a team which compiled a 3-5-2 mark the previous season and molded them into an 11-1 squad, going undefeated in the MAC while winning the program's first bowl game.

The following season was more of the same as the Falcons were again perfect in league play and a win over Nevada in the first Las Vegas Bowl made it back-to-back bowl victories. The 1993 squad would extend the conference winning streak to a league-record 19 games while going unbeaten in the first 22 MAC games of Blackney's tenure.

Urban Meyer took over the reins of the Falcon program in 2001 and engineered the top turnaround in Division IA. The Falcons opened the Meyer era with an impressive road win at Missouri and followed that up with wins over Buffalo and Temple, surpassing their victory total of the previous year.

BGSU posted its first winning season since 1994 when it reeled off three straight wins to end the season. The Falcons 43-42 victory at Northwestern made them the first MAC team to ever defeat three teams from BCS conferences in a single season. The Falcons ended the season six-days later with a 56-21 pasting of MAC Champion Toledo.

In 2002, BGSU roared to an 8-0 start including win over Missouri and Kansas and were ranked in both the AP and Coaches polls at the same time for the first time in school history.

Meyer's offensive coordinator, Gregg Brandon, took over as head coach in December, 2002, and guided the Falcons to their first-ever MAC West title and Motor City Bowl Championship and finished ranked in the top 25 (#23) in both major polls at the end of a season for the first-time in school history.

Coach Gregg Brandon and assistant coach Dennis Springer celebrate the Falcons' 27-26 win over #16 Purdue.

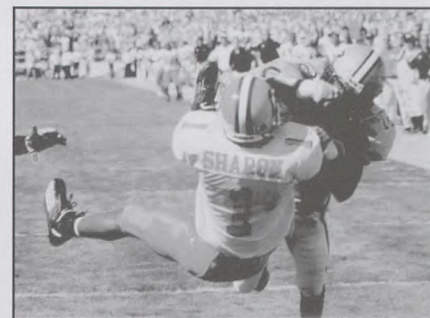

The Mid-American Conference title won by the 1991 team was the first of two consecutive championships. The 1991 team won all eight of its MAC games, the first of what would turn into a league-record 19-game winning streak.

One player who links Blackney, Meyer and Brandon was All-American quarterback Josh Harris. The Westerville, Ohio native came to BGSU with the intention of sitting out the 2000 season as a redshirt, but was pressed into duty when injuries decimated the Falcon backfield.

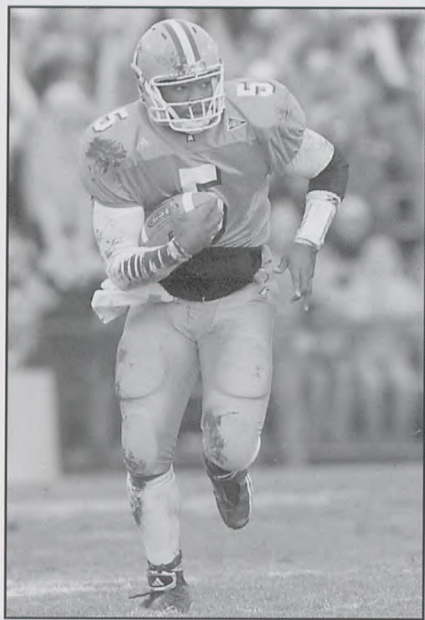

Serving as a running back and kick returner for the bulk of the season, Harris showed signs of greatness in glimpses and even started his first career game on ESPN against Toledo.

Meyer took over the program the following season and inserted Harris into the starting lineup for good in the ninth game of the season and watched his team win 11 straight games over the next two seasons and earn its first national ranking since 1985.

The Motor City Bowl MVP guided the Falcons to a 6-1 record in three seasons as a starter against BCS competition.

Charles Sharon hauls in this 32-yard touchdown pass with 2:08 left in BGSU's upset win over at Purdue in 2003.

All-American quarterback Josh Harris takes a 48-yard TD pass from Cole Magnier in the Falcons' 2003 win over Toledo. Harris was responsible for more than 100 TDs during his career.

The 2003 season gave BGSU its highest national profile and elevated the program to new heights. Longtime Falcon fans have viewed the program's 1972 win over the Boilermakers as one of the biggest in BGSU history.

Well, lightning strikes twice. While Purdue entered the day with a #16 national ranking and visions of BCS aspirations dancing in their heads, the Falcons were able to keep it close and the Falcons converted twice on fourth down, capped by a 32-yard miracle pass-and-catch from Harris to Charles Sharon with 2:08 remaining to post a 27-26 win.

The Falcons were back into the national spotlight with a #23 ranking by the AP and a showdown with undefeated and #12 Northern Illinois showed so much promise that ESPN's College Gameday made Bowling Green its home for the weekend. For the first time in 20 years, Doyt Perry Stadium was sold out and the game was shown on ESPN2.

All-American Janssen Patton set an NCAA record by picking off three passes in a game for the third time in his career and Harris directed the BGSU offense flawlessly as the Falcons prevailed 34-18 in just the second-ever regular season meeting between two nationally-ranked MAC schools. The Falcons would spend the next seven weeks in both national polls and were ranked 24th in the final BCS standings.

In what would be the most meaningful game in the history of the BGSU/Toledo rivalry a national TV audience and another sellout crowd would witness the first meeting in which the two schools played the final game of the regular season for an outright championship.

The Falcons rallied in the fourth quarter in front of a second home sellout crowd to post a 31-23 over arch rival Toledo. That would secure the Falcons' first-ever MAC Championship game appearance at home against #12 Miami.

In the MAC's first-ever battle with the Big Ten in post-season play, Harris earned MVP honors completing a bowl record 38 passes as the Falcons posted a 28-24 win over the Wildcats. The victory allowed the Falcons to finish a season in both the AP and Coaches polls for the first time in school history.

In 2004, BGSU once again enjoyed the national spotlight when they opened the season on the road at Oklahoma in a game that was televised by ABC. While the Falcons fell 40-24 to a team which would play for the national title, a new era was ushered in that day.

All-American quarterback Omar Jacobs set an NCAA record by throwing 41 TD passes with just four interceptions in 2004. He was named MVP of the 2004 GMAC Bowl as BGSU defeated Memphis, 52-35.

Sophomore quarterback Omar Jacobs, in his first collegiate start, would hold his own that day with Heisman Trophy winner Jason White. Jacobs would go on to earn All-American honors and MAC Offensive Player of the Year recognition after throwing for a national best 41 TD passes. He completed 309 of 462 passes for a BGSU record 4,002 yards.

Following a 1-2 start, BGSU erupted for a 70-16 victory at Temple, won their next seven games and were ranked by both AP and ESPN for the third straight year.

BGSU would earn its second straight bowl berth and played Memphis in the GMAC Bowl. In its first game ever against a Conference USA opponent, Jacobs would throw for five TDs and 365 yards and the Falcon defense would limit the Tigers to seven points in the second half as BGSU won 52-35. The Falcons were one of a MAC record five teams selected to participate in a post season contest.

BGSU began the 2005 season ranked 23rd by Sports Illustrated and Jacobs was featured in ESPN The Magazine.

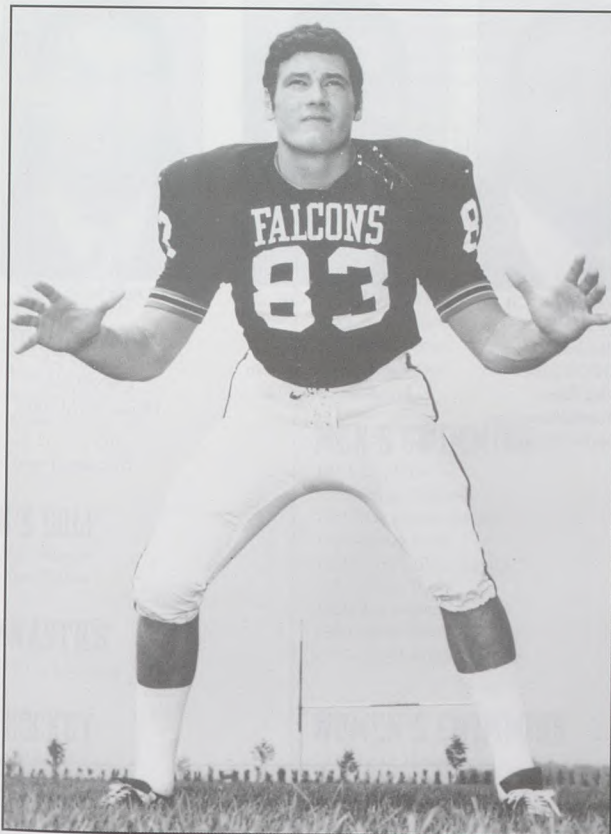

With four national TV appearances under their belt in 2005 and 2006, BGSU has made 17 such national TV appearances since Gregg Brandon took over the program in 2003.

Lee Corso (left) and Kirk Herbstreit were part of the ESPN team which broadcast the 2003 MAC Championship game from Doyt Perry Stadium.

Erik White was the Las Vegas Bowl MVP in 1992.

Phil Villapiano is one of the top defensive players in BGSU history.

In a one-time game to help defray the expenses (burial and medical) of families of the 16 members of the Cal Poly San Luis Obispo football team who perished in a plane crash, Oct. 29, 1960, shortly after takeoff from Toledo Express Airport, Bowling Green and Fresno State, the undefeated champion of the California Collegiate Athletic Association, met at the historic Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

Playing before its largest crowd in school history, the Falcons, six-point favorites, were guilty, uncharacteristically, of six turnovers, which was the difference in the game. BG's defense, which was ranked fourth in the nation, yielded 468 yards, 196 more than it had given up to any opponent during the season. Quarterbacks Beau Carter and Jon Anabo were thorns in BG's side all day passing for 368 yards and two touchdowns. Carter ran for two scores, also.

BG scored its only points early in the second stanza on the two-yard run by Ray Bell which was set up on a long pass play between Larry Smith and quarterback Jim Potts.

BG fumbled on its next two possessions with FSU turning the second miscue into a touchdown on a long pass play. Bowling Green did have a pass dropped in the end zone as the first half ended which would have given them the lead. Fresno State then scored 1:44 apart midway through the third period to put the game away, the second score set up by a fumbled snap on an attempted punt. The contest netted $170,000 for the memorial fund which aided the survivors and the relatives of the victims of the plane crash. Cal Poly SLO had played at Bowling Green the afternoon before the crash.

After a full week of events leading up to the meeting with the Pacific Coast Athletic Association champion Fresno State, the Falcons entered the game against the Bulldogs a two-touchdown underdog.

The Falcons also had to contend with a partisan sea of red squeezed into Bulldog Stadium, the home of Fresno State.

But, the Falcons drew first blood converting a Jac Tomasello interception on the final play of the first quarter into the first touchdown of the game, a Chip Otten four-yard run capping a 48-yard drive. The Falcons took a 14-0 lead to the locker room after driving 73 yards on their next possession. Sophomore quarterback Brian McClure connected with John Meek on the scoring play.

BG looked to be in the driver's seat after McClure connected with Shawn Potts from five yards out in the third stanza. But, Fresno State answered BG's score with their first of the contest later in the quarter.

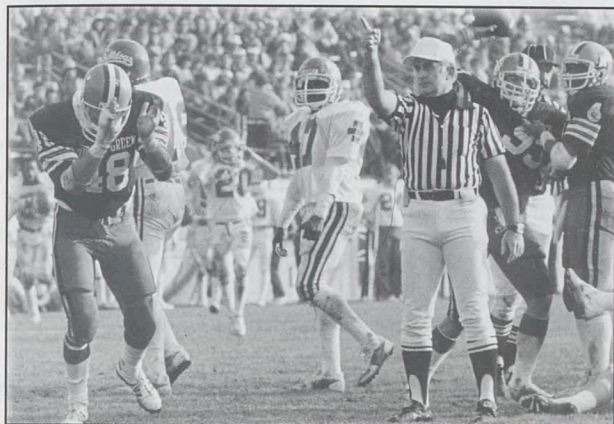

Bowling Green came right back as Potts picked up a fumble by receiver Greg Taylor at the five-yard line and ran it in to put the Falcons back up by three touchdowns.

With Fresno State pinned back on its own 20-yard line and facing a third-and-ten, a Falcon stop might have put the final nail in the Fresno State coffin. But, FSU gained 15 yards on the third-down play and the comeback was on.

With future NFL receiver Stephone Paige running and catching a pass for a touchdown, FSU closed to within six points with three minutes left. BG used up just 1:05 of the clock on its next possession and FSU moved 45 yards in eight plays with Jeff Tedford finding Vince Wesson over the middle with 11 seconds left. Scott Darrow's PAT was the deciding point.

BG gained just 26 yards on nine plays in the fourth quarter while FSU gained 220 of its 453 yards in the final 15 minutes.

This third quarter fumble recovery by Stu Tolle set up the third Falcon touchdown giving the Falcons a 21-0 lead over Fresno State in the 1982 California Bowl.

The tone for what was expected to be one of the most evenly-matched California Bowls, came earlier in the week when BGSU head coach Denny Stolz told the team before their Wednesday practice he would be leaving after the bowl game to accept the head coaching job at San Diego State.

An indication of what was ahead for the Falcons in the game came early in the first quarter when, trailing 7-0, they drove to the Bulldog one-yard line where they fumbled the ball away in the end zone, the first of five on the day and the same number they had committed in the first 11 games of the season. Fresno State would score the next 37 points before BG would hit paydirt.

Wide receiver Mark Szlachcic (#84) had 11 receptions, two for touchdowns, for a school-record 189 yards in the 1991 California Bowl.

Not even being a double-digit underdog against Fresno State could keep the Falcons from completing its storybook season under first-year head coach Gary Blackney.

And the script for this game was all Hollywood.

The first quarter would have led the fans to believe it might take 40 or 50 points to win the game as the Falcons scored touchdowns on their first two possessions and the Bulldogs would get one of those back before the quarter was over.

The scoring continued early in the second stanza as BG's Erik White and Mark Szlachcic hooked up for a second time. But, FSU came right back on their next possession with Anthony Daigle running 57 yards to cut the deficit in half going to the lockerroom.

The defenses took over in the third quarter, each allowing just 65 yards total offense. Late in the quarter, FSU placekicker Derek Mahoney missed a 26-yard field goal, the most significant scoring opportunity of the quarter.

BG scored early in the final stanza moving 80 yards after the missed field goal to build another 14-point lead.

FSU came right back to score driving 71 yards as quarterback Mark Barsotti completed five-of-six passes, connecting with tight end Marty Thompson from five yards out.

After three changes of possession, FSU started the final drive of the game from their one-yard line, after an interception, with 2:29 remaining.

FSU used its last time out with 24 seconds left and the Bulldogs just nine yards away from the needed touchdown. After a running play for six yards and two incomplete passes, the final play of the game would determine the outcome with three seconds left.

The BG defense rose to the occasion covering all FSU receivers and Barsotti threw incomplete with BG linebacker Kevin O'Brien pressuring. It was BG's first bowl win.

BG won its 11th game making Blackney one of only three coaches in NCAA history to win 11 games in their first season as a head coach.

In the inaugural Las Vegas Bowl, which replaced the California Bowl, the Falcons faced the high-powered offense of the University of Nevada.

In a game in which the punting game took center stage, the Falcons won the first half and Nevada the second half, but a late BG touchdown proved to be the difference.

The Falcons scored on their first four possessions to grab a 28-3 halftime lead. BG had 267 first-half yards to just 116 for the Wolfpack as they had an 18-6 edge in first downs.

In the second half, it was Nevada quarterback Chris Vargas' turn. He had engineered six Nevada comeback victories in three years coming off the bench, including an NCAA-record 35-point comeback against Weber State.

Nevada scored three touchdowns in the third quarter with punts of five and seven yards by BG setting up the first two scores. The Wolfpack's third score was set up by a high snap from center on a BG punt.

Nevada finally took the lead with 12:41 left in the game and looked to possibly put the game away with a field goal with 7:13 left, ending their run of 31 unanswered points.

Bowling Green then moved to the Nevada six-yard line before turning the ball over on downs. After holding the Wolfpack to one first down, Nevada punter Steve Lester had the center snap go through his hands setting up the Falcons at the Wolfpack 15-yard line with 1:45 remaining.

A 12-yard Erik White to Mark Szlachcic connection on first down put the Falcons on the three-yard line. After two runs and a pass did not net any yardage, White found Dave Hankins alone in the back of the end zone on fourth down with 22 seconds left. Placekicker Brian Leaver made the PAT for the winning points and BG's second consecutive bowl win.

Zeb Jackson gave BGSU a 28-7 lead against Nevada.

Northwestern took away Bowling Green's running game. So Josh Harris beat the Wildcats through the air. Harris passed for 386 yards and three touchdowns to lead Bowling Green to a 28-24 victory over Northwestern in the Motor City Bowl. It was the first postseason meeting ever between school's from the MAC and Big Ten.

Bowling Green took the lead for good on Harris' 3-yard touchdown pass to Cole Magner with 4:06 left. Harris, who also ran for a TD, set a Motor City Bowl and BGSU record for completions with 38 in 50 attempts. It also marked the third fourth quarter rally for BGSU against a Big Ten squad (Northwestern in 2001 and Purdue in 2003). Magner also set a game record for catches, finishing with 12 for 97 yards and two touchdowns.

Jason Wright ran for 237 yards on 21 carries and finished with 336 all-purpose yards for Northwestern. He had a 77-yard TD run - the second-longest run in Motor City Bowl history - to give the Wildcats a 17-7 lead early in the third quarter and an 88-yard kickoff return early in the fourth to set up Noah Herron's 2-yard touchdown run that made it 24-21.

Bowling Green used two 80-yard scoring drives to take a 21-17 lead early in the fourth. Harris threw a 7-yard TD pass to Magner, and put the Falcons on top with an 11-yarder to Steve Sanders.

Northwestern opened the scoring on Herron's 40-yard fourth-down run in the first quarter, and made it 10-0 on Brian Huffman's 31-yard field goal. Bowling Green answered with a 67-yard drive, capped by Harris' 4-yard run.

Bowling Green quarterback Josh Harris (left) was named co-MVP of the 2003 Motor City Bowl after leading the Falcons to a 28-24 comeback win over Northwestern, giving the MAC its first-ever postseason win over a Big Ten foe. Harris set a Motor City Bowl record by completing 38 of 50 passes for 386 yards and three TDs. Harris finished his career with 7,503 yards passing, 2,473 yards rushing and 104 TDs responsible for. Falcon head coach Gregg Brandon (right) led all NCAA IA first-year head coaches in victories by leading the Falcons to an 11-3 record.

Omar Jacobs went from Bowling Green's question mark to the Mid-American Conference's latest star quarterback. Jacobs capped a marvelous sophomore season by passing for 365 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Falcons to a 52-35 victory over Memphis in the GMAC Bowl.

The Falcons (9-3) turned a shootout into a blowout after leading 35-28 at halftime to win their fourth consecutive bowl game. Jacobs got them started with four first-half touchdown passes - two apiece to Charles Sharon helped carry them the rest of the way. Pope ran 28 times for 151 yards and a pair of 1-yard touchdowns. He also caught a 13-yard pass for the only score of the third quarter. The Tigers (8-4), playing in back-to-back bowl games for the first time, couldn't keep up with the nation's No. 4 offense, which totaled 558 total yards.

Jacobs, whose 41 touchdown passes led the nation and set a Mid-American Conference record, completed 26 of 44 passes with an interception to earn Most Valuable Player honors. If his first season as a starter is an indication, he's in line for the kind of prolific career of former MAC quarterbacks such as Byron Leftwich and Ben Roethlisberger. He used a number of rollout passes to counter a blitzing Memphis defense - a la Roethlisberger in last year's GMAC Bowl. At halftime, the teams seemed poised to take aim at the 2001 GMAC Bowl, the highest scoring bowl game in history with 125 combined points for Marshall and East Carolina. The offenses stopped themselves early in the third quarter. Jacobs threw only his fourth interception of the season to give the Tigers the ball at Bowling Green's 41. Memphis tried to go for it on fourth down but was twice penalized for having 12 men on the field. Bowling Green made it 42-28 on the ensuing possession with Pope slipping underneath for a 13-yard touchdown catch on third-and-7. The Tigers then squandered another trip across midfield when a scrambling Wimprine fumbled the ball and Bowling Green's Mike Thaler recovered 31 yards behind the line of scrimmage to set up a field goal. Even the weather worked in the offenses' favor, however, with a driving rainstorm subsiding a few minutes before kickoff to clear the way for Jacobs and Wimprine to go to work. They took full advantage. Jacobs capped his four-touchdown half with a 17-yarder to Sanders, who reached over defensive back Cameron Essex in the end zone with 37 seconds left.

Not surprisingly, it was a night for offensive records. Jacobs set the MAC record with his 41st overall touchdown rushing or passing in the first quarter, adding four more. He also joined Roethlisberger and Leftwich as the league's only 4,000-yard passers. The Falcons also set the MAC record for scoring average in a season.

The Falcons enjoy the post-game celebration following their 52-35 victory over Memphis in the 2004 GMAC Bowl. Game MVP Omar Jacobs threw a bowl-record five TD tosses.

DOYT L. PERRY

1988 College Football Hall of Fame Inductee

The year 1988 will be fondly remembered by many who are associated with the football program at BGSU. That year Doyt L. Perry, a former player, coach and administrator was recognized by the National Football Foundation with its top honor, induction into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Perry traveled to New York in December of 1988 for the Foundation's Hall of Fame dinner and was officially enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in June, 1989, in ceremonies held at Kings Island, Ohio.

Perry's association with BGSU dates back to the 1920s when he lettered nine times in three sports (football, basketball and baseball). The Croton, Ohio native received his degree in 1932. He began coaching on the high school level before becoming an assistant at Ohio State in 1951.

Perry returned to his alma mater in 1955, leading the football program to a 77-11-5 (.855) record over the next 11 years. His teams won five Mid-American Conference titles and one national college division championship in 1959. Perry's winning percentage ranks fifth on the all-time NCAA list.

Perry, who retired from coaching in 1964 to become BGSU's athletic director, developed such outstanding coaches as Bill Mallory, Don Nehlen, Larry Smith, and the late Dave McClain. Many more of Perry's former assistants and players have gone on to enjoy success in the coaching profession.

Perry passed away in February of 1992. At his memorial service former Michigan coach Bo Schembechler, an assistant on Perry's 1955 staff, said, "I don't believe I can name a coach, anywhere, anytime, anyhow, who did it better than Doyt Perry."

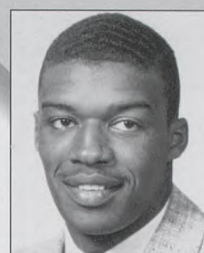

A documentary on Perry's career was released in May of 1998. It was produced by WBGU-TV.

WHY ORANGE AND BROWN?

Orange and brown have been the school colors at Bowling Green State University since 1914, the first year of classes. Legend has it that Leon Winslow, an industrial arts faculty member, got the idea from watching a women's hat on a bus to nearby Toledo, Ohio. He liked the brown and orange color combination. So, too, did former Cleveland Browns' head coach Paul Brown. Following a trip to BGSU in the 1940s, Brown used the colors for his All-America Conference team.

ALMA MATER

Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.

Time will treat you kindly
Years from now you'll be
Ever dearer in our hearts,
Our University.

From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
From our dear Bowling Green.

When all is just a mem'ry
Of the by-gone days,
Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

FIGHT SONG

Forward Falcons, Forward Falcons
Fight for victory,
Show your spirit, make them fear it
Fight for 'ol Bee Gee.

Forward Falcons, Forward Falcons
Make the contest keen,
Shout out the fame of our mighty name
And win for Bowling Green!

AY ZIGGY ZOOMBA

Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zoomba
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Ze
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zoomba
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zi
Roll along you BG warriors
Roll along and win for BGSU

Ay Ziggy Zoomba is Bowling Green's unofficial fight song. Gil Fox, an Air Force bombardier in World War II stationed in Italy, brought a loose translation of a Zulu war chant back with him, and since its introduction in 1946 to a campus spirit assembly, it has kept its place in BGSU history. The Falcon football team traditionally sings "Ay Ziggy Zoomba" after each victory.

RETIRED JERSEY

The only football jersey ever retired at Bowling Green is #29. It was worn by Paul Miles from 1971-73. Miles rushed for 3,239 yards and 25 touchdowns in his career and was a three-time first team All-MAC selection. He was just the third back in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 or more yards in three consecutive seasons.

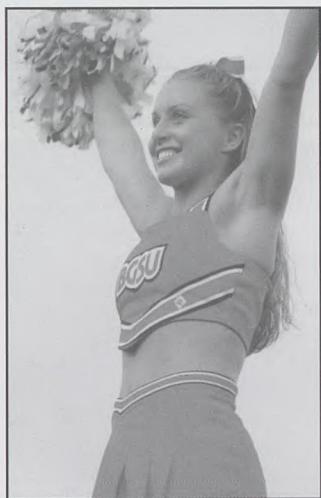

FRIEDA & FREDDIE

FALCON

Frieda and Freddie Falcon are the official mascots of the Bowling Green Falcons. Together with the BGSU cheerleaders, Frieda and Freddie boost spirit at intercollegiate athletic events. Tryouts are held each spring, and winners remain anonymous to the student body until each is "beheaded" at the last home basketball and hockey game. The Freddie Falcon tradition began in 1950 while Frieda Falcon was added for the 1979-80 athletic year.

WHY THE FALCONS?

The 2005-2006 athletic year marks the 78th anniversary of Bowling Green's nickname, Falcons. Before 1927, BG teams were called the Normals or Teachers. Ivan Lake '23 suggested the nickname after reading an article on falconry. Lake, managing editor and sports editor of the Sentinel Tribune in Bowling Green at the time, proposed the name change because it fit headline space and because falcons were "the most powerful bird for their size and often attacked birds two or three times their size."

PEACE PIPE AWARD

The Peace Pipe is a traveling award that goes to the winner of the annual gridiron battle between Bowling Green and Toledo. The Peace Pipe tradition actually began on the basketball court during the 1947-48 season. At that time, the teams exchanged a six-foot long wooden peace pipe. The original basketball Peace Pipe disappeared, so, in 1980, the Peace Pipe was reinstated for football with former UT football player Frank Kralik creating the present trophy. Today's Peace Pipe is a smaller version of the original pipe, resting atop a trophy.

ANNIVERSARY AWARD

The Anniversary Award is a traveling award that goes to the winner of the football game between Bowling Green and Kent State. Established in 1985 by the respective alumni departments at BGSU and KSU, the Anniversary Award commemorates the founding of BGSU and KSU in the year 1910.

DOYT PERRY STADIUM

A new video board replaced the original scoreboard at Doyt Perry Stadium in the 2004 season.

Doyt L. Perry Stadium, with its 23,724 seating capacity, is celebrating its 41st year as the home of Bowling Green State University football. In 2001 permanent lighting was installed at the venue and home attendance doubled. In 2004, a new scoreboard with video capabilities was installed and new FieldTurf will be in place for the 2007 season.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Stadium had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982. One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Stadium set the conference record for single-game attendance.

On October 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Stadium for the annual Northwest Ohio rivalry between Bowling Green and Toledo, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance. The Falcons went on to set a season record, breaking the six-digit figure for five games with a total draw of 100,021. It marked the first time in history that Bowling Green averaged more than 20,000 fans for five home football games.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out Toledo at Perry Stadium in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green's season attendance to an of 22,422. In 1994, BG fans bettered the mark of 1985 as 114,802 fans, an average of 22,960, attended the five home games.

In 2003, Falcon faithful attended sellout games against Northern Illinois and Toledo as ESPN broadcast three games live from the facility and brought its weekly college football show, Gameday, to Bowling Green. That year, BGSU averaged more than 21,000 per home game.

Perry Stadium is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes locker rooms, equipment and training rooms, along with the Athletic Department offices. The west side received a face-lift 12 years ago. A physical fitness center/weight room opened its doors to all intercollegiate athletic teams in the summer of 1988.

Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. The Stadium Club's 106 theatre-type seats, which are all sold, provide loyal BGSU fans with the best view of the game. The President's Box, located at the top of the east side of the stadium, provides luxury seating for President Sidney Ribeau, his guests, and other supporters of Falcon football.

The construction of elevators on both sides of the stadium, completed in early 1998, has made the stadium more accessible for all fans. Renovations to all boxes on both sides and the stadium club have taken place over the last few years making for a more "fan-friendly" atmosphere. Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Stadium, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on October 1, 1966. Since that time, the Falcons have won over 66 percent of their home games, compiling a 133-61-6 record in the 200 games played at Perry Stadium.

Perry Stadium is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons. Doyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His .855 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, Perry is fifth all-time behind Bob Reade (Augustana), Knute Rockne (Notre Dame), Frank Leahy (Notre Dame), and Larry Kehres (Mount Union) in winning percentage among coaches with at least 10 years of service on the collegiate level. Perry served as the BGSU athletic director for seven years (1965-71) after stepping down as football coach.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

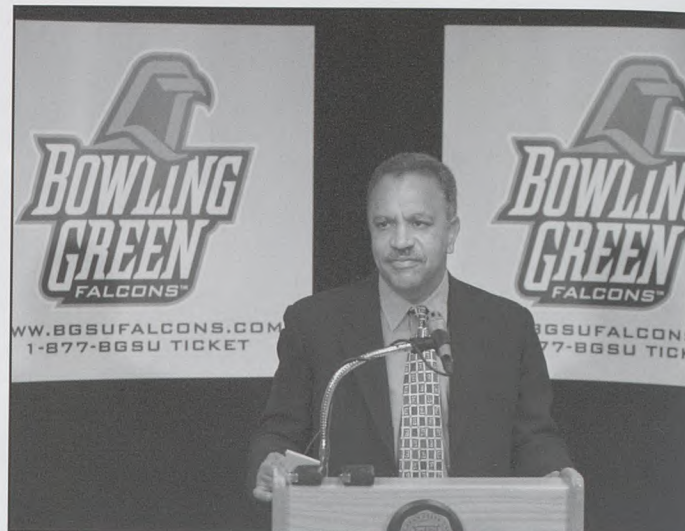

Dr. Sidney A. Ribeau, the 10th President of Bowling Green State University, has served the institution since 1995 and holds an academic appointment as professor of interpersonal communication at the University. As president, he has been committed to the creation of an enriching and transformative environment for the entire campus, as well as the expansion of partnerships with the surrounding community. President Ribeau's leadership and vision have been the driving forces behind a number of innovative programs geared toward the holistic education of students, including the President's Leadership Academy, the BG Experience values initiative, residential living/learning communities, and a campus wide initiative focused on the scholarship of engagement.

Before his appointment as BGSU president, Ribeau served as Vice President for Academic Affairs at California State Polytechnic University from 1992-95; Dean of the College of Liberal Arts at California Polytechnic State University from 1990-92; Dean of Undergraduate Studies at California State University, San Bernardino, from 1987-90; Chair of the Pan-African Studies Department at California State University, Los Angeles, from 1984-87, and professor of Communication Studies at CSU Los Angeles from 1976-87.

President Ribeau received a bachelor's degree in English and Speech Education from Wayne State University, and subsequently earned both master's and Ph.D. degrees in Interpersonal and Group Communication from the University of Illinois. He is the co-author of the book African American Com- munication: Exploring Identity and Culture, now in its second edition, among numerous other publications.

On the national level, he is a trustee for TIAA-CREF and sits on the President's Council for the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). At the state level, President Ribeau serves as chair of the President's Council of the Inter-University Council of Ohio. He is involved with local community groups, including the Bowling Green Area Community Partnership, Regional Growth Partnership, Toledo Urban League, Toledo Symphony, The Andersons, Inc., Convergys Corporation and Worthington Industries.

Among his many honors are distinguished alumnus awards from Wayne State University and the University of Illinois, scholarly recognition from the National Communication Association, and the 2003 President's Award from the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators. In 2007 he received the Ohio Association of Student Personnel Administrators' William Nestor Presidential Award.

President Ribeau and his wife, Paula Whetsel-Ribeau, are the proud parents of three children.

In 1978, he enrolled in the college student services administration doctoral program at Oregon State University. He received his doctorate in 1981 and his first student affairs position was Greek affairs coordinator at Iowa State University, where he supervised the activities of 48 fraternity and sorority chapters. In 1982, he was named associate dean of students and assistant professor of education and a member of the graduate faculty at Texas Tech University. In 1985, he became dean of students at the University of Alabama-Tuscaloosa, and taught in the Department of English.

Prior to coming to Bowling Green, Dr. Whipple was vice president for student affairs at Montana State University - Billings, and that institution's first vice president for student affairs. At that institution, he was given the challenge of reorganizing the student affairs area at Montana State, a university of 3,800 students, where he also oversaw the Division II athletic program. In addition to managing the student affairs program, Dr. Whipple was also an associate professor and taught courses in both the School of Liberal Arts (English literature) and the School of Education (teacher preparation).

He has written articles for student affairs journals, texts, and monographs and is affiliated with several professional organizations. He has held leadership positions at the regional and national level in the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators (NASPA). Currently, he serves as President of NASPA's Foundation Board and is also a member of that organization's Journal Board. He currently serves as past Chair of the Council on Student Affairs of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges. He also serves on the Northwest Association of Schools and Colleges as an evaluator for institution accreditation. Dr. Whipple served two terms as President of the Ohio Student Personnel Association and is the past international President of Phi Delta Theta Fraternity and currently the national President of Order of Omega, the Greek Leadership/Scholarship Honorary.

Dr. Whipple currently serves on the Woodlane Industries Board of Trustees and is President of the Bowling Green Exchange Club. He has served as President of the BGSU Friends of the Libraries and the Bowling Green Junior High School PTO.

His educational background also includes traveling to France to study the French language at the University de Caen in Caen and graduate work at the Universite Catholique de l'Ouest in Angers. In 1988, he took a special management development program at Harvard University.

Dr. Whipple is the parent of a 20 year-old son, John, a junior at BGSU. He and his wife, Cindy, a member of the Romance Languages faculty at BGSU, reside in Bowling Green.

GREG CHRISTOPHER
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Greg Christopher, is entering his second year as the Assistant V.P./Director of Athletics at Bowling Green State University. He was named Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs/Director of Athletics at BGSU on June 13, 2006.

Christopher, who is the 12th full-time athletic director in school history, oversees an 18-sport program which has a budget of $14.3-million and 73 full-time employees. BGSU, which is a member of the Mid-American Conference (MAC) and Central Collegiate Hockey Association (CCHA), is one of 13 programs in the country which sponsor Division I-A football and compete in men's and women's basketball and men's ice hockey on the Division I level.

Christopher, a native of West Lafayette, was at Purdue prior to his time at BGSU and was a member of the department's senior staff which collaborated on all athletic, human resource and management issues. He has been in his current position since March of 2005 and was accountable for external and revenue-related areas for Purdue's $50-million department. In his role, he oversees several areas, including development, marketing, promotions and advertising, athletic licensing and sports information.

Under his leadership, Purdue raised $17.2-million in total giving for Athletics last year. He also has played a significant role in a seven-year campus-wide capital campaign which is in the final two years and is on track to raise $111 million for Athletics during that period. Projects that have come to fruition in this time frame include tripling the number of endowed athletic scholarships and several facility additions or renovations. Among the facility projects are an indoor golf training center, football stadium renovation, aquatic center, indoor tennis center, and basketball video board campaign. He also currently is the advisor for Purdue's chapter of Athletes-in-Action.

Additionally, Christopher served a period of time as the sport administrator for Purdue's men's and women's tennis programs. In addition to working with the teams during this period, he oversaw fundraising and business planning for the facility which will not only benefit the University, but will serve as a tennis club for the entire community.

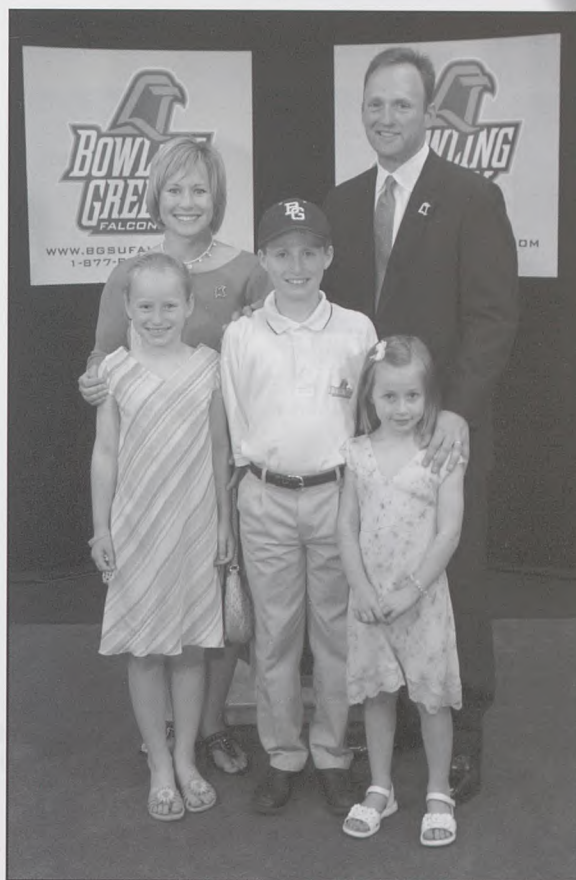

He began his career on the Boilermaker staff as Assistant Director of the John Purdue Club from 1997-99 and was promoted to Director in 1999. He was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in 2002 and was the program administrator for tennis prior to 2005.

Christopher served as Executive Director for the Society of Professional Journalists in Greencastle, Ind., from 1994 to 1997 after joining the organization in 1991 as its Marketing and Development Director. During that time, he managed a staff of 15 and a $1.6-million budget for the nation's largest not-for-profit journalism organization. His tenure focused largely on external relations, fueling growth that doubled the net worth of the foundation and association. He also improved relations with SPJ's 250 local chapters and national volunteer leaders and negotiated contracts and corporate partnerships.

Prior to joining SPJ, Christopher was an Account Executive at WWV-FM in Charlottesville, Va., from 1988-90. In that capacity, he designed and managed station promotions, including partnerships with the athletics program at the University of Virginia. He also was part of the "Page Program" at NBC in New York in 1988 where he served as a research analyst, assisting the Manager of Sports Programming and Market Analysis in research of television sports. He also produced network sports tracking reports and surveys of major league sports.

He earned a bachelor's degree in Mass Communication from Miami (Ohio) University in 1988 and earned his MBA from the institution in 1991. He played football for one season before the former linebacker's career was cut short due to injury. In 1987-88 and 1990-91, he was involved as a television color commentator in football and play-by-play voice for men's ice hockey which aired on regional cable television and WPTD-TV in Dayton. He also served as a graduate assistant in the Office of Admissions at Miami in 1990-91.

Christopher, 40, is married to the former Tina Smith of Leetonia, Ohio. The couple has a son, Zachary, 11, and two daughters, Megan and Allison, ages 9 and 7.

DR. TOM
WOJCIECHOWSKI

Dr. Richard Barker, a Bowling Green native, is the head team orthopaedic surgeon. Dr. Barker completed his undergraduate degree at BGSU in 1969. He completed his medical degree, as well as postgraduate orthopaedic residency training, at the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine. Since 1978, Dr. Barker has enjoyed a general orthopaedic practice in Bowling Green, including trauma, total joint replacements, arthroscopy and sports medicine. He has been team physician and orthopaedic consultant since returning to Bowling Green in 1978. Dr. Barker is a member of the Ohio Orthopaedic Society, the American College of Sports Medicine and the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgery. He is certified by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery. Dr. Barker and his wife Holly, a teacher, have three children. He has held numerous offices at Wood County Hospital, including chief-of-staff and President of the Wood County Medical Society.

Dr. Randy Trimpey is a recent addition to BGSU Sports Medicine Team. Prior to working with BGSU sports, Dr. Trimpey trained in sports medicine at Sports Care in Toledo where he worked with the University of Toledo athletics, Storm Hockey, and Bedford High School sports. He received his medical education at Medical College of Ohio 1997-2001 and Flower Hospital Family Practice Residency Program in Sylvania, 2001-2003. Dr. Trimpey was a former varsity wrestler at Ohio Northern University where he performed his undergraduate studies. Currently he practices family medicine and sports medicine at Bowling Green Clinic. He resides in Bowling Green with his wife Chris, and his three daughters Meagan, Hailey, and Samantha.

A fixture around the Falcon athletic program for many years is team physician Dr. Tom Wojciechowski. "Doc Wojo," as he is known around the program, received a B.S. in Pharmacy from the University of Toledo in 1967, and his M.D. from Wayne State University. He did his residency from 1975-78 at Toledo Hospital before entering into private practice in Bowling Green. Dr. Wojciechowski received his American Board of Family Practice Board Certification in 1979. He has been a member of the Wood County Medical Society, Ohio State Medical Association, American Academy of Family Physicians and the American Medical Association. He is presently a Physician Consultant for Portage Home for Mentally Retarded. His past activities include Physician Consultant to the Wood County Cancer Society, Secretary of Medical Staff and Physician Consultant on Alcoholism. He also was a Charter Member of the Wood County American Diabetic Association as well as serving as a member of the OSMA Residency Affairs Committee. He and his wife are the parents of four children (Tom Jr. and Ed, who are also M.D.'s, Stacey and Lisa) and reside in Bowling Green.

DR. JEFFREY
NOFTZ

Dr. Jeffrey Nofzt is the head team physician for the BGSU program. He is currently an assistant professor in both the Physician Assistant Program and the Physical Therapy Program at BGSU. He was assistant professor in Orthopedics and Family Practice prior to accepting a position at The Bowling Green Clinic specializing in non-operative musculoskeletal pathology and family practice. Prior to coming to Bowling Green, he was the director of Primary Care Sports Medicine within the department of orthopedics. He served as the team physician for Toledo Public Schools Athletics, Owens Community College Athletics, Toledo Ballet, Toledo Ice Diggers and Toledo Cherokee hockey clubs. Dr. Nofzt completed his residency at the Medical College of Ohio Department of Family Practice and served as chief resident and team physician for Toledo Central Catholic High School during his residency. Dr. Nofzt graduated from medical school and physical therapy school from the Medical College of Ohio. He received top graduate honors from BGSU upon completion of physical therapy school. Dr. Nofzt and his wife Renee' of eleven years have a three year old daughter named Jordan.

The Falcon Club at Bowling Green State university brings together the real supporters and true fans of the Falcons.

As a member of the BGSU booster club for athletics, you can be a major player in helping us become the best athletic program in the MAC and CCHA.

BGSU's student-athletes currently bring to the Bowling Green community a dimension of excellence, both academically and athletically, that distinguishes it nationwide. They are leaders both on campus and in the community. Your support will ensure that our student-athletes maintain a competitive edge, while moving aggressively forward.

Vision Statement

The BGSU athletic department is committed to being a national and community leader, demanding academic and athletic excellence that fosters integrity, pride, respect, tradition and creative innovation.

THE POWER OF ONE

It's about YOU.

Your participation is absolutely vital.

Recruitment success has never been more important because the difference essentially comes down to finding the ONE.

Can we afford that ONE student-athlete, that ONE aspiring young person who can offer BGSU with that ONE sparkling moment of greatness and grace?

It depends.

Can we encourage ONE more Falcon Club member to join, increase his or her giving level or recruit ONE more member?

Use the power. Make your mark.

The Falcon Club, is the umbrella of financial support for BGSU Athletics.

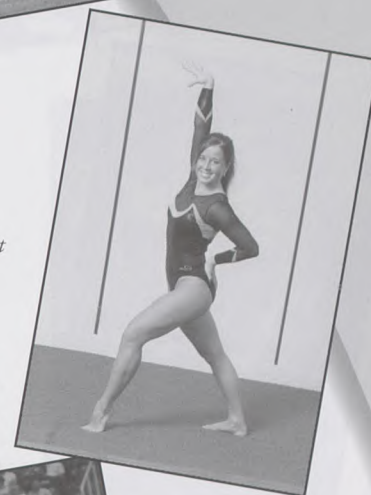

Funds raised by the Falcon Club from alumni, fans and friends:

- Support scholarships for Falcon student-athletes
- Improve athletic facilities
- Can be designated to specific sport programs
- Provide for other needs within the University's Division I athletic program

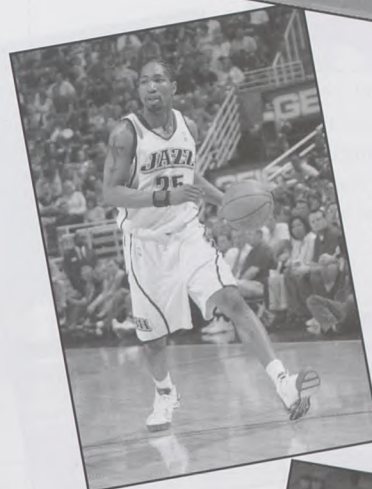

Learn more about the Falcon Club and how to give to BGSU Athletics by going to www.bgsufalcons.com and linking to the Falcon Club web page.
